Of the other eighteen sketches some deal with eminent men whose names are still familiar but whose personalities have begun to fade from the minds of the present generation. The rest treat of persons who came less before the public but whose brilliant gifts and solid services to the world make them equally deserve to be remembered with honour. Having been privileged to enjoy their friendship I have felt it a duty to do what a friend can to present a faithful record of their excellence which may help to keep their memory fresh and green.
