Studies In John Gower:

Studies in John Gower Maria Wickert, 1981 The Routledge Research Companion to John Gower Ana

Saez-Hidalgo, Brian Gastle, R.F. Yeager, 2017-03-31 The Routledge Research Companion to John Gower reviews the most current scholarship on the late medieval poet and opens doors purposefully to research areas of the future. It is divided into three parts. The first part, 'Working theories medieval and modern', is devoted to the main theoretical aspects that frame Gower's work, ranging from his use of medieval law, rhetoric, theology, and religious attitudes to approaches incorporating gender and queer studies. The second part, 'Things and places', examines the cultural locations of the author not only from geographical and political perspectives or in scientific and economic context but also in the transmission of his poetry through the materiality of the text and its reception. Polyvocality of text and language. The third part focuses on Gower's trilingualism, his approach to history and narratological and intertextual aspects of his works. The Routledge Research Companion to John Gower is an essential resource for scholars and students of Gower and of Middle English literature history and culture generally. The Routledge Research Companion to John Gower Ana Saez-Hidalgo, Brian

The Routledge Companion to Medieval English Literature Raluca Radulescu, Sif Rikhardsdottir, 2022-12-30 The Routledge Companion to Medieval English Literature offers a new inclusive and comprehensive context to the study of medieval literature written in the English language from the Norman Conquest to the end of the Middle Ages. Utilising a Trans-European context, this volume includes essays from leading academics in the field across linguistic and geographic divides. Extending beyond the traditional scholarly discussions of insularity in relation to Middle English literature and isolationism, this volume oversees a variety of genres and topics including cultural identity, insular borders, linguistic interactions, literary gateways, Middle English texts and traditions, and modern interpretations such as race, gender studies, ecocriticism, and postcolonialism. Draws on the combined extensive experience of teaching and research in medieval English and comparative literature within and outside of anglophone higher education and looks to the future of this fast-paced area of literary culture.

Contains an indispensable section on theoretical approaches to the study of literary texts This Companion provides the reader with practical insights into the methods and approaches that can be applied to medieval literature and serves as an important reference work for upper level students and researchers working on English literature John Gower in Manuscripts and Early Printed Books Martha W. Driver, Derek Pearsall, Robert F. Yeager, 2020 Essays considering the relationship between Gower's texts and the physical ways in which they were first manifested John Gower Malte Urban, 2009 The essays collected here represent the current state of research into the works of John Gower poet philosopher and contemporary of Geoffrey Chaucer They assess Gower's literary output within the context of manuscript production and readership ownership in late medieval England and the triangle of Latin French and English as literary and official languages in Ricardian England Sections of the volume focus on manuscripts and the circulation of Gower's works in languages other than English In addition the literary and philosophical contexts that inform Gower's poetics and politics are considered here resulting in readings of the poet's rhetorical and ethical agenda as well as his texts intervention in and reaction to social outsiders in his contemporary London A wide variety of critical discourses inform the readings presented here including medieval English French and Latin literary studies art history manuscript production and reception postmodern ethics and historical studies Studies in the Age of Chaucer David Matthews, 2011-01-17 Studies in the Age of Chaucer is the annual yearbook of the New Chaucer Society publishing articles on the writing of Chaucer and his contemporaries their antecedents and successors and their intellectual and social contexts More generally articles explore the culture and writing of later medieval Britain 1200 1500 Each SAC volume also includes an annotated bibliography and reviews of Chaucer related publications The complete works of John Gower John Gower, 1901 Studies in the Age of Chaucer, 1997 On John Gower Robert F.
