Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson, I. R. Willison, 1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries The Schooling of Working-Class Girls in Victorian

Scotland Jane McDermid, 2013-01-11 The portrayal of Scotland as a particularly patriarchal society has traditionally had the effect of marginalizing Scottish women both teachers and students in both Scottish and British history The Schooling of Working Class Girls in Victorian Scotland examines and challenges this assumption and analyzes in detail the course of events which has led to a more enlightened system Education was and is seen as integral to Scottish distinctiveness but the Victorian period saw anxious debate about the impact of outside influences at a time when Scottish society seemed to be fracturing This book examines the gender blindness of the educational tradition with its notion of the democratic intellect testing the claim of superiority for the Scottish system and questioning the assumption that Scottish women were either passive victims or willing dupes of a peculiarly patriarchal ideal Considering the influences of the related ideologies of patriarchy and domesticity and the crucial importance of the local and regional economic context in focusing on female education this book provides a much wider comparative study of Scottish society during a period of tremendous upheaval and a perceived crisis in national identity in which women as well as men participated Catalogue of the education library
