

ARCHITECTURE

According to Vitruvius, a good structure must meet the three characteristics of firmitas, utilitas, and venustas, which are commonly translated as stability, utility, and delight. In modern English, an equivalent would be:

- Durability: a construction should be able to withstand the elements, and remain in good condition.
- Utility: it should be appropriate for the purpose for which it is used.
- Beauty: should be pleasing to the senses.

PAINTING

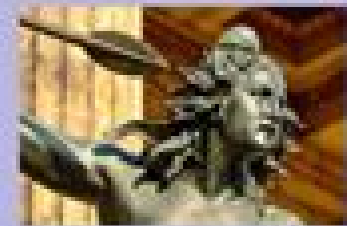

Painting is perhaps the most well known of the seven types of fine arts. People have used that a piece of paper could be a canvas to capture reality, record the beginning of time.

There have been several well-known visual artists, so it's no wonder that it's still one of the most popular and widely recognized fine art forms.

SCULPTURE

Another of the seven arts is sculpture, the ability to form the solid to create an 3D figure. Originally, a sculpture was created by just carving into a material, which was then directly into the stone.

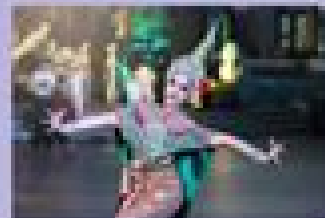

A few modernists did an artwork that incorporated a wide range of materials and techniques. Sculpturing is a sub-set of the visual arts that captures three dimensions. It is a type of plastic art.

MUSIC

Music has a special place among the seven arts because of its capacity to create harmonious sounds using instruments. For a long time, humans had been accompanied by the music of nature.

It is a communication art form, as well as a connecting art capable of reaching the subconscious layer and influencing an entire population. There are hundreds of musical instruments, which are engaged by hands.

It is a form of body expression that can transport the audience and is always tied to music. Some features are reinforced by gestures, they begin with a focus on facial expression when they are at their most emotional.

The term "performing arts" refers to forms of entertainment in which artists use their bodies to present artistic education. It is one of a group in the field of visual arts. Performing arts include a variety of physical movements that are usually performed in front of a live audience.

PERFORMANCE

Film, also known as motion picture or movie, is a media that can be used to record moving events, as well as other things (sound, to make experiences that inspire thoughts, ideas, imaginations, emotions, opinions or perceptions).

The term "cinema," short for "cinematography," is frequently used to refer to filmmaking and the industry as well as the artistic expression that results from it.

Literature is a form of art that refers to the use of words to express itself. Although we agree that literature is a form of art, some people do not consider literature to be a fine art. Poetry is also included in this form.

Literature refers to writing that is considered a piece of writing, that is seen as beautiful or embellished in content, sometimes using the use of language in unusual ways.

The Latin word littera (literature) which comes from littera, which means letter or penmanship, was used to refer to all written records.

In Beloved Community, Casey Blake considers these intellectuals as a coherent group and assesses the connection between their cultural criticisms and their attempts to forge a communitarian alternative to liberal and socialist politics. Blake draws on biography to emphasize the intersection of questions of self, culture, and society in their calls for a culture of personality and self fulfillment In contrast to the tendency of previous analyses to separate these critics cultural and autobiographical writings from their politics Blake argues that their cultural criticism grew out of a radical vision of self realization through participation in a democratic culture and polity He also examines the Young American writers interpretations of such turn of the century radicals as William Morris Henry George John Dewey and Patrick Geddes and shows that this adversary tradition still offers important insights into contemporary issues in American politics and culture Beloved Community reestablishes the democratic content of the Young Americans ideal of personality and argues against viewing a monolithic therapeutic culture as the sole successor to a Victorian culture of character The politics of selfhood that was so critical to the Young Americans project has remained a contested terrain throughout the twentieth century Arthur Symons Lawrence Wayne Markert,1988 The Millennial Harbinger ... ,1841 Transatlantic Avant-Gardes Eric B White,2013-02-28 A revisionary account of the evolution of twentieth century modernism concentrating on expressions of cultural localism in the modernist transatlantic Proceedings of the International Congress of Education of the World's Columbian Exposition, Chicago, July 25-28, 1893 International Congress of Education,1895 Journal of the House of Delegates of the Commonwealth of Virginia Virginia.
