History and Institutions Shelomo Dov Goitein, 2023-09-25 A Compact Survey of Islamic Civilization Dr. Muhammad Hedayetullah, 2012-10-04 Islam is one of the Semitic Religions thus one of the greatest religions of the world and it is not easy to present a complete description of this religion in a Compact Survey as this book is. It is also not easy to understand the practical life of the Muslims without some knowledge of their religious social life. For that one needs to have a complete understanding of the principal institution of Islam. A compact exposition of Muslim institutions covers at least important aspects of Arab Muslim life. Keeping in mind these facts I have tried to deal with the origin background and the rise of Islam the dogmas and the superstitions of the faith the sources and practice of Muslim law the family life and Sufism. It packs an immense amount of information even though there are still other aspect to be dealt with. Concerning the life of the Prophet it is well known that Muhammad b Abdullah was born about 570 C E in Mecca al Makkah the son of a Korashite family. Orphaned early he grew up under the care of his nearest relatives. His father had already died so he was brought up by his nearest relatives his grandfather and his uncle. He was a shepherd during his boyhood age. It is also reported that unlike other boys Muhammad was thoughtful rather than playful. At the age of about twenty five he became the business adviser of a famed widow named Khadija who was fifteen years his senior. Eventually he became her third husband. We do not know much about his early religious life. He seems however to have begun early to meditate on the values of life and to have had an unusually nervous high strung constitution. At the age of forty he started receiving the divine The Wiley Blackwell History of Islam Armando Salvatore, Roberto Tottoli, Babak Rahimi, 2018-06-18 A theoretically rich nuanced history of Islam and Islamic civilization with a unique sociological component. This major new reference work offers a complete historical and theoretically informed view of Islam as both a religion and a sociocultural force. Uniquely comprehensive it surveys and discusses the transformation of Muslim societies in different eras and various regions providing a broad narrative of the historical development of Islamic civilization. This text explores the complex and varied history of the religion and its traditions. It provides an in depth study of the diverse ways through which the religious dimension at the core of Islamic traditions has led to a distinctive type of civilizational process in history. The book illuminates the ways in which various historical forces have converged and crystallized in institutional forms at a variety of levels embracing social religious legal political cultural and civic dimensions. Together the team of internationally renowned scholars move from the genesis of a new social order in 7th century Arabia right up to the rise of revolutionary Islamist currents in the 20th century and the varied ways in which Islam has grown and continues to pervade daily life in the Middle East and beyond. This book is essential reading for students and academics in a wide range of fields including sociology history law and political science. It will also appeal to general readers with an interest in the history of one of the world's great religions. Emerging Trends in Psychology, Law, Communication Studies, Culture, Religion, and Literature in the Global Digital Revolution Yulianto Budi Setiawan, Santi Rahmawati, 2020-02-25 The Fourth Industrial Revolution has the potential to raise global
