Studies Voltaire 18th Century Volume 171:

The Feminization of Fame 1750-1830 C. Brock, 2006-07-11 This book addresses the literary cultural and historical questions surrounding the reconceptualization of fame between 1750 1830 It examines genres from history writing to literature public and private memoirs to political treatises in English and in French in order to explore The age of personality s obsession with instantaneous publicity

The Books that Made the European Enlightenment Gary Kates, 2022-08-11 In contrast to traditional Enlightenment studies that focus solely on authors and ideas Gary Kates employs a literary lens to offer a wholly original history of the period in Europe from 1699 to 1780 Each chapter is a biography of a book which tells the story of the text from its inception through to the revolutionary era with wider aspects of the Enlightenment era being revealed through the narrative of the book s publication and reception Here Kates joins new approaches to book history with more traditional intellectual history by treating authors publishers and readers in a balanced fashion throughout Using a unique database of 18th century editions representing 5 000 titles the book looks at the multifaceted significance of bestsellers from the time It analyses key works by Voltaire Adam Smith Madame de Graffigny Jean Jacques Rousseau and David Hume and champions the importance of a crucial innovation of the age the rise of the erudite blockbuster which for the first time in European history helped to popularize political theory among a large portion of the middling classes Kates also highlights how when and why some of these books were read in the European colonies as well as incorporating the responses of both ordinary men and women as part of the reception histories that are so integral to the volume

Christian Imaginations of the Religious Other Marianne Moyaert, 2024-01-31 Explores how Christians created used and adapted religionized categories of non Christians through the centuries Christian Imaginations of the Religious Other traces the genealogy of religionization the various ways Christians throughout history have created a sense of religious normativity while simultaneously producing various categories of non Christian otherness Covering a broad expanse of processes practices and socio political contexts this innovative volume analyzes the complex intersections of patterns of religionization in different eras while investigating their entanglements with racialization sexualization and ethnicization With a readable and accessible style Marianne Moyaert offers a nuanced and well balanced critical analysis of how and why Christianity s others were named categorized essentialized and governed by those exemplifying Christian normativity in Western European society The author takes a longue dur e approach a long term perspective on history that extends past human memory and the archaeological record that integrates different case studies and a variety of ecclesial theological and literary documents Throughout the text Moyaert demonstrates how religionization shaped the ways Christians classified people organized Christian societies interacted with different Christian and non Christian groups and more Surveys the relationship between shifts in Christian normativity and the way non Christians are imagined Helps readers connect the lasting effects of patterns of religionization with their everyday experiences Discusses the role of Christian expansion in the differential and unequal treatment of Christianity's others Examines legal regulations and disciplinary practices that were established to define the boundaries between Christians and non-Christians Incorporates a wide range of scholarly resources cutting edge research and the most recent insights and issues in the field Includes textboxes with helpful summaries illustrations and commentary in each chapter Christian Imaginations of the Religious Other A History of Religionization is an excellent textbook for undergraduate and graduate courses in interreligious studies comparative theology theological approaches to religious diversity Christian Jewish Muslim relations race and religion and theorizing religion Professor Moyaert is one of the world's best scholars of comparative theology In this magisterial new work she helps scholars of religion to better learn how religious images whether drawn with pictures or words are crucial to how we understand ourselves and each other Amir Hussain President American Academy of Religion Breathtaking in scope and detail Moyaert offers an original history of the ways Christians have projected distorted images of their religious others with devastating material consequences Her illuminating story of the past is a searchlight for our present Jeannine Hill Fletcher Professor of Theology Fordham University Christian Imaginations is a superb study of the role that Western political programs play in the historical construction of identity boundaries Analytically erudite and socially committed Moyaert's book powerfully interrogates what counts as religion making this text a must read for anyone interested in interreligious studies Santiago Slabodsky Florence and Robert Kaufman Professor in Jewish Studies Hofstra University Raising the historical formation of religious identities to the level of contemporary treatments of gender and racialization Christian Imaginations of the Religious Other is essential reading for students of religion Michelle Voss Professor of Theology and Past Principal Emmanuel College of Victoria University in the University of Toronto Crafting a Western European mosaic of religionization's turbulent history Moyaert unveils how religious identities are constructed hierarchies function and their relevance for engaging diverse societies today worldwide Hans Gustafson Adjunct Professor of Theology University of St Thomas The French Review James Frederick Mason, H       Harvitt, 1979
