Rousseau's Critique of Science Jeff J. S. Black, 2009 In answer to its four guiding questions it concludes that Rousseau's thesis is based on his understanding of the nature of the interaction of reason and vanity that Rousseau's system originates in introspection and is established by a non historical method of analysis and synthesis that the Discourse is an indispensable part of Rousseau's system because it spells out the beginnings of this analysis and the conclusions of this synthesis and through the limitations of its arguments points to the entire extent of his system and that as a result Rousseau's critique of science has much to teach us about the dangers involved in our political commitment to scientific progress and about the ways in which the future happiness of mankind might be secured
