Introducing Cultural Studies David Walton,2007-11-29 An outstanding entry level text aimed at those with little or no cultural studies knowledge. Innovative, creative and clever. Times Higher Education. The ideal textbook for FE and first year HE cultural studies students. Its quality and character allow the reader to feel the enthusiasm of its author, which in turn becomes infectious, instilling in the reader a genuine sense of ebullient perturbation. Art, Design, Media, The Higher Education Authority. An introduction to the practice of cultural studies, this book is ideal for undergraduate courses. Full of practical exercises that will get students thinking and writing about the issues they encounter, this book offers its readers the conceptual tools to practice cultural analysis for themselves. There are heuristics to help students prepare and write projects, and the book provides plenty of examples to help students develop their own ideas. Written in a creative, playful and witty style, this book links key concepts to the key theorists of cultural studies. Includes a wide range of references of popular cultural forms. Emphasizes the multidisciplinary nature of cultural studies. Includes pedagogical features such as dialogues, graphs, images and recommended readings. The book's skills-based approach enables students to develop their creative skills and shows students how to improve their powers of analysis generally.

School Culture Recharged Steve Gruenert,Todd Whitaker,2017-02-16 Why do some schools succeed while others struggle? Why do policies and programs often fail to deliver what they promise? In this follow-up to their insightful School Culture Rewired: How to Define, Assess, and Transform It, authors Steve Gruenert and Todd Whitaker offer practical advice and strategies that help you build positive energy to reinvigorate your school's culture and staff. Written as a standalone guide, School Culture Recharged clarifies the difference between culture and climate and zeroes in on key school improvement efforts, including: Moving from the culture you have to the culture you want. Using the school's culture to improve teaching, job satisfaction, and morale. Maximizing the intentions of professional learning communities and developing organizational habits, rules, and rituals that can contribute to positive change. For education leaders at all levels, this book delivers a compelling message: Understanding and harnessing the transformative power of school culture can propel your school into the kind of place where teachers want to work and administrators can focus on what matters most and students can thrive     Better Stories: Mapping Cultural Studies with Lawrence Grossberg Andrew Davis, John Nguyet Erni, Carolyn Hardin, Gilbert B. Rodman, Jennifer Daryl Slack, 2025-09-10 Better Stories assembles essays and provocations in honor of Lawrence Grossberg's radically contextual and affectively attuned lifework. In over fifty chapters contributors trace mattering maps of influence, friendship, and intellectual struggle charged with the hope that thinking together with feeling can change the world. These essays not only comment on Grossberg's ideas and many published works but also engage, expand, confront, and reshape them. Here cultural studies is not a settled field but an unruly and ongoing conversation, an affective and political project sustained through convivial agonism where asking so what sparks new thinking and even better stories. With contributions from Charles R. Acland, Preston Adcock, Juan Ricardo Aparicio, Bryan G. Behrenhausen, Tony Bennett, Marcus Breen, Lisa B. Y. Calvente, Iain Chambers, Younghan Cho, John Clarke, Barbara Claypole White, Zachariah Claypole White, Chantal Cornut, Gentille D. The book offers a sustained focus on language, food, and sustainability in an inclusive format that is sensitive to issues of gender, sexuality, race, and ethnicity. With chapters contributed by many of the best known and respected scholars in visual communication this volume brings together significant and influential work in the visual communication discipline. The theory chapters included here define the twelve major theories in visual communication scholarship: aesthetics, perception, representation, visual rhetoric, cognition, semiotics, reception theory, narrative, media aesthetics, ethics, visual literacy, and cultural studies. Each of these theory chapters is followed by exemplar studies in the area demonstrating the various methods used in visual communication research as well as the research approaches applicable for specific media types. The Handbook serves as an invaluable reference for visual communication theory as well as a useful resource book of research methods in the discipline. It defines the current state of theory and research in visual communication and serves as a foundation for future scholarship and study. As such it is required reading for scholars, researchers and advanced students in visual communication and it will be influential in other disciplines in which the visual component is key including advertising, persuasion and media studies. The volume will also be useful to practitioners seeking to understand the visual aspects of their media and the visual processes used by their audiences.
