Studying Life Designs:

Handbook of Life Design Laura Nota, Jérôme Rossier, 2015-03-09 Our lives and careers are becoming ever more unpredictable. The life design paradigm described in detail in this ground breaking handbook helps counselors and others meet people's increasing need to develop and manage their own lives and careers. Life design interventions suited to a wide variety of cultural settings help individuals become actors in their own lives and careers by activating, stimulating and developing their personal resources. This handbook first addresses life design theory then shows how to apply life designing to different age groups and with more at risk people and looks at how to train life design counselors.

Live Art in the UK

Maria Chatzichristodoulou, 2020-02-06 Since entering the performance lexicon in the 1970s the term Live Art has been used to describe a diverse but interrelated array of performance practices and approaches. This volume offers a contextual and critical introduction to the scene of contemporary Live Art in Britain. Focusing on key artists whose prolific body of work has been vital to the development of contemporary practice this collection studies the landscape of Live Art in the UK today and illuminates its origins as well as particular concerns and aesthetics. The introduction to the volume situates Live Art in relation to other areas of artistic practice and explores the form as a British phenomenon. It considers questions of cultural specificity, financial and institutional support and social engagement by tracing the work and impact of key organizations on the UK scene: the Live Art Development Agency, SPILL Festival of Performance and Compass Live Art. Across three sections leading scholars offer case studies exploring the practice of key artists Tim Etchells, Marisa Carnesky, Marcia Farquhar, Franko B, Martin O'Brien, Oreet Ashery, David Hoyle, Jordan McKenzie and Cosey Fanni Tutti.

Tania El Khoury's Live Art

Carrie Robbins, 2024-02-06 Tania El Khoury's Live Art is the first book to examine the work of Tania El Khoury, a live artist deeply engaged in the politics and histories of the South West Asia and North Africa (SWANA) region. Since the 2011 Syrian uprisings, El Khoury has conceived and created works about lived experiences at and across international borders in collaboration with migrants, refugees and displaced persons, as well as other artists, performers and revolutionaries. All of El Khoury's works cross borders between forms of artistic practice, between artists and audiences, and between art and activism. Facilitating critical dialogue about the politics of SWANA and the impact of globalization, her performances and installations also test the boundaries of aesthetic, political and everyday norms. This interdisciplinary and multimedia reader features essays by artists, curators and scholars who explore the dynamic possibilities and complexities of El Khoury's art. From social workers to archeologists to archivists, contributing authors engage with the radical epistemological and political revolutions that El Khoury and her collaborators invite us all to join.

Living Art Elly Kent, Virginia Hooker, Caroline Turner, 2022-11-08

Living Art: Indonesian Artists Engage Politics, Society and History is inspired by the conviction of so many of Indonesia's Independence era artists that there is continuing interaction between art and everyday life. In the 1970s Sanento Yuliman, Indonesia's foremost art historian of the late twentieth century further developed that concept, stating: "New Indonesian Art cannot wholly be understood without locating it in the context of the larger framework of Indonesian society and culture and the whole force of history The essays in this book accept Yuliman's challenge to analyse the intellectual sociopolitical and historical landscape that Indonesia's artists inhabited from the 1930s into the first decades of the new millennium including their responses to the COVID 19 pandemic The inclusion of one of Yuliman's most influential essays translated into English for the first time offers those outside Indonesia an insight into a formative period in the generation of new art knowledge in Indonesia The volume also features essays by T K Sabapathy Jim Supangkat Alia Swastika Wulan Dirgantoro and FX Harsono as well as the three editors Elly Kent Virginia Hooker and Caroline Turner The book's contributors present recent research on issues rarely addressed in English language texts on Indonesian art including the inspirations and achievements of women artists despite social and political barriers Islam inspired art artistic ideologies the intergenerational effects of trauma and the impacts of geopolitical change and global art worlds that emerged in the 1990s The Epilogue introduces speculations from contemporary practitioners on what the future might hold for artists in Indonesia Extensively illustrated Living Art contributes to the acknowledgement and analysis of the diversity of Indonesia's contemporary art and offers new insights into Indonesian art history as well as the contemporary art histories of Southeast Asia and Asia more generally

Live Art in LA Peggy Phelan, 2012 Live Art in LA explores the histories and legacies of performance art in Southern California in the 1970s and early 80s Peggy Phelan documents and critically examines one of the most productive periods in the history of live art using archival documents historical resources and nearly 100 photographs
