M. Dunnett, 2001-06-01 Preface Tell me sir the sincere young woman inquired anxiously of the preacher What is the Bible all about After serious thought the preacher replied My girl the Bible is all about Jesus That essentially is the message of the New Testament It is all about Jesus From the story of the humble birth in Bethlehem as recorded in the Gospels to the scene of the glorious exaltation as King of Kings and Lord of Lords as depicted in the book of Revelation the subject is the same At the beginning of this study of the New Testament the student will do well to look for the Lord Jesus Christ and His teachings Before a study of the books of the New Testament is undertaken in systematic fashion two preliminary matters of great importance must be considered The New Testament has a background which when properly considered will help to illuminate the books themselves Chapter 1 therefore deals with the three most important areas of this setting the Hebrew the Greek and the Roman Following this treatment the chapter presents an overview or bird s eye view of the whole New Testament This approach sometimes called the synthetic is vital to acquaint the student with the major divisions or parts of the New Testament and the unity of the whole Having completed chapter 1 you the student are ready to investigate each book separately Chapters 2 through 12 consider the respective writers and their writings the purpose outline main content and leading features The attention of the reader is called to Application Activities at the end of each chapter and the bibliography at the end of the book These serve at least a dual purpose 1 They provide opportunity for you to carry on your studies in a more detailed and intensive manner whenever you wish to do so 2 They provide information regarding matters which could be given only passing mention You will find that the Discussion Questions at the end of the chapters will be valuable for testing your grasp of the materials you have studied Thanks are due to Moody Press Chicago for their kind quotation in chapter 11 have been taken from that work On then to study May it be done in the spirit of 2 Timothy 2 15 and
