Eisenburger, 2002 Forms of Wonderment: The History and Collections of the Afrika Museum Berg en Dal describes how the Afrika Museum in Berg en Dal near Nijmegen in the Netherlands has developed over the years. It provides the first ever overview of the museum's rich collections. In the half century since the museum was founded, there has been a profound shift in Western attitudes to African and other world cultures. This is also true of the artefacts and works of art produced by these cultures. The title refers not only to the objects that are the main subject of this book but also to the various forms of wonderment of which they are both the cause and the effect. Many of the African forms shown here reflect man's wonderment at the circumstances and mysteries of his existence and focus our attention on crucial moments and relationships in human life. Ever since the early twentieth century, these same forms have been a source of wonderment to artists, missionaries, art historians, anthropologists and art lovers in the West; wonderment which often merges into admiration. The purpose of these books is to increase that admiration by familiarising readers with the artists' idioms and explaining the purposes and meanings of the objects they made.
