Aelred of Rievaulx Saint Aelred (of Rievaulx), 2005 Aelred's historical works both reflect on the past and direct the men and women of England to God through virtuous participation in the secular world, imitation to great and humble models, and a combination of virtue and faith. A descendant of generations of married priests in an age when priests were forbidden to wed, an English monk in a French Order, a Saxon living under Roman rule, an abbot bred to service in the church but trained for service in the court, Aelred explores the past as a guide for the present and assurance of the future. Drawing on the Bible, the Fathers of the Church, classical writers like Cicero, and medieval historians such as the Venerable Bede and Symeon of Durham, he insisted on the importance of history for guiding human action, declaring that the meaning of the past can only be known in the present and that only at the end can one understand the beginning. In this volume are four of Aelred's seven historical works: Lament for David King of Scots written 1153, The Genealogy of the Kings of the English 1153, 1154, The Life of Saint Edward King and Confessor 1162-63, and the Battle of the Standard 1153-54.
