a. What are the differences between being the chairman of the board and being the CEO of a company? Chairman responsibilities are more symbolic and symbolic differences between the CEO and chairman.	Chairman duties involve managing the overall board and to provide general direction for the company. The chairman does not have to worry about day-to-day operations. The CEO will have a weightier role in decision-making, financial issues, and other business operations. Chairman symbolic role is to maintain a relationship between the board and the CEO. Chairman can be seen as a figurehead and a liaison with other board members because their responsibilities are more symbolic and a symbolic role goes to the chairman.
b. What is the main advantage of being a manager possessing both the social and entrepreneurial? What are the differences between these two organizations? Chairman symbolic role.	Both the social option and entrepreneurial strategy option is becoming more and more common in business operations. The social option strategy has a major concern about social issues. While the entrepreneurial strategy option is more concerned about financial issues. The two described strategy options are not necessarily "either/or" because they can be combined. Entrepreneurial strategy option is more concerned about financial issues, while social strategy option is more concerned about social issues.
