Aesthetics and Politics Ernst Bloch,1980 No other country and no other period has produced a tradition of major aesthetic debate to compare with that which unfolded in German culture from the 1930s to the 1950s In Aesthetics and Politics the key texts of the great Marxist controversies over literature and art during these years are assembled in a single volume They do not form a disparate collection but a continuous interlinked debate between thinkers who have become giants of twentieth century intellectual history

Radical History and the Politics of Art Gabriel Rockhill,2014-07-15 Gabriel Rockhill opens new space for rethinking the relationship between art and politics Rather than understanding the two spheres as separated by an insurmountable divide or linked by a privileged bridge Rockhill demonstrates that art and politics are not fixed entities with a singular relation but rather dynamically negotiated sociohistorical practices with shifting and imprecise borders Radical History and the Politics of Art proposes a significant departure from extant debates on what is commonly called art and politics and the result is an impressive foray into the force field of history in which cultural practices are meticulously analyzed in their social and temporal dynamism without assuming a conceptual unity behind them Rockhill thereby develops an alternative logic of history and historical change as well as a novel account of social practices and a multidimensional theory of agency Engaging with a diverse array of intellectual artistic and political constellations this tour de force diligently maps the various interactions between different dimensions of aesthetic and political practices as they intertwine and sometimes merge in precise fields of struggle Edward Upward and Left-Wing Literary Culture in Britain Benjamin Kohlmann, 2016-04-29 Offering the first book length consideration of Edward Upward 1903 2009 one of the major British left wing writers this collection positions his life and works in the changing artistic social and political contexts of the twentieth and early twenty first centuries Upward s fiction and non fiction from the 1920s onwards illustrate the thematic and formal richness of left wing writing during the twentieth century age of extremes At the same time Upward s work shows the inherent tensions of a life committed at once to writing and to politics The full range of Upward s work and a wealth of unpublished materials are examined including his early fantastic stories of the 1920s his Marxist fiction of the 1930s the extraordinary semi autobiographical trilogy The Spiral Ascent and his formally and thematically innovative later stories The essays collected here reevaluate Upward s central place in twentieth century British literary culture and assess his legacy for the twenty first century Unsettling Nature Taylor Eggan, 2022-03-24 The German poet and mystic Novalis once identified philosophy as a form of homesickness More than two centuries later as modernity s displacements continue to intensify we feel Novalis s homesickness more than ever Yet nowhere has a longing for home flourished more than in contemporary environmental thinking and particularly in eco phenomenology If only we can reestablish our sense of material enmeshment in nature so the logic goes we might reverse the degradation we humans have wrought and in saving the earth we can once again dwell in the nearness of our own being Unsettling Nature opens with a meditation on the trouble with such ecological homecoming narratives which bear a close resemblance to narratives of settler colonial homemaking Taylor Eggan demonstrates that the Heideggerian strain of eco phenomenology along with its well trod categories of home dwelling and world produces uncanny effects in settler colonial contexts He reads instances of nature s defamiliarization not merely as psychological phenomena but also as symptoms of the repressed consciousness of coloniality The book at once critiques Heidegger s phenomenology and brings it forward through chapters on Willa Cather D H Lawrence Olive Schreiner Doris Lessing and J M Coetzee Suggesting that alienation may in fact be natural to the human condition and hence something worth embracing instead of repressing Unsettling Nature concludes with a speculative proposal to transform eco phenomenology into exo phenomenology an experiential mode that engages deeply with the alterity of others and with the self as its own Other Marxism, Ideology, and Literature Cliff Slaughter, 1980 Georg Lukács: the Man, His Work and His Ideas George Henry Radcliffe Parkinson, 1970 Perpetual Carnival Colin MacCabe, 2017 Upholding literature and film together as academically interwoven Perpetual Carnival underscores the everlasting coexistence of realism and modernism eschewing the popularly accepted view that the latter is itself a rejection of the former Mining examples from both film and literature Colin MacCabe asserts that the relationship between film and literature springs to life a wealth of beloved modernist art from Jean Luc Godard s Pierre le Fou to James Joyce s Ulysses enriched by realism s enduring legacy The intertextuality inherent in adaptation furthers this assertion in

MacCabe's inclusion of Roman Polanski's Tess a 1979 adaptation of Thomas Hardy's nineteenth century realist novel Tess of the d'Urbervilles Showcasing essays enlivened by cosmopolitan interests theoretical insight and strong social purpose Perpetual Carnival supports a humanities which repudiates narrow specialization and which seeks to place the discussion of film and literature firmly in the reality of current political and ideological discussion It argues for the writers and directors the thinkers and critics who have most fired the contemporary imagination Georg Lukács Ehrhard Bahr, Ruth Goldschmidt Kunzer, 1972 Marxists on Literature David Craig, 1975 Michigan Quarterly Review, 1986
