Startt,1996    The Media Were American Jeremy Tunstall,2008 It has become clear that the U S media are no longer increasingly their grip throughout the globe Asia and the Arab Moslem world is virtually saturated with their own national media output Tunstall produces a well written provocative snapshot at global media today His point of view is relentlessly global he considers the role of the media in the collapse of the Soviet Union the ascendance of the Brazilian and Mexican soap opera the increasing strength of Bollywood the national cinema output of India as well as the relative decline in influence of US media Importantly Tunstall focuses on both the nation state and the geographical and cultural region as crucial levels in today's mass media Both the United States and the US mass media have now lost their previous moral leadership Lone American control of the world news flow has ceased today rather than Global media we see a world media system comprised of interlocking national regional cultural systems Tunstall's assessment is a wake up call for insular American media consumers    The Media in America William David Sloan,James Glen Stovall,1989    The Media in America William David Sloan,Erika Pribanic-Smith,Tracy Lucht,2023    The Press and America Michael C. Ladd, 2011-12-05 As recently as the early 1970s the news media was one of the most respected institutions in the United States Yet by the 1990s this trust had all but evaporated Why has confidence in the press declined so dramatically over the past 40 years And has this change shaped the public's political behavior This book examines waning public trust in the institutional news media within the context of the American political system and looks at how this lack of confidence has altered the ways people acquire political information and form electoral preferences Jonathan Ladd argues that in the 1950s 60s and early 70s competition in American party politics and the media industry reached historic lows When competition later intensified in both of these realms the public's distrust of the institutional media grew leading the public to resist the mainstream press's information about policy outcomes and turn toward alternative partisan media outlets As a result public beliefs and voting behavior are now increasingly shaped by partisan predispositions Ladd contends that it is not realistic or desirable to suppress party and media competition to the levels of the mid twentieth century rather in the contemporary media environment new ways to augment the public's knowledgeability and responsiveness must be explored Drawing on historical evidence experiments and public opinion surveys this book shows that in a world of endless news sources citizens trust in institutional media is more important than ever before A Future for the News Jim A. Kuypers, 2023-11-15 A Future for the News What's Wrong with Mainstream News Media in America and How to Fix It investigates and offers solutions to significant problems with the productive functioning of the mainstream news media Criticism of the mainstream news media is almost a national pastime in America and widespread polling shows credibility ratings of journalists among the lowest of any institution in America almost as low as that of Congress The institution of news media faces a plummeting morale of journalists loss of readership loss of viewers to competing non traditional venues for news and so on Moving from these problems to realistic solutions this book serves as an instruction manual of sorts with each chapter offering a pathway of improvement This collection brings together academics and news industry professionals with individual chapters taking a specific area of concern and making a case for particular solutions to the problems presented Solutions range from ones designed for individual reporters to consider to those that target newsrooms the institution of journalism and news consuming audiences Together they aim to help a beleaguered institution restore itself as a fully functioning asset of the American Republic Contributors Abe Aamidor Brent Baker Alex Christy Jennifer Cox Michelle Ferrier John Gable Katherine Haenschen Michael Horning Michael Max Knorpp Jim A Kuypers Serena Miller Cayce Myers Stephen D Perry Soo Young Shin Benjamin Voth Adriel Warren The Media in America Wm.
