

THE MILLENNIUM DEVELOPMENT GOALS AND TOBACCO CONTROL

*T*his study demonstrates the relevance of tobacco control in achieving each of the eight United Nations Millennium Development Goals. It outlines the occurrence of the high yet increasing prevalence of tobacco use in the developing world, and documents the negative impact that tobacco addiction and tobacco use have on poverty and development. Global partnerships deemed to be important in strengthening tobacco control, which all nations and their development agencies are urged to address as an aspect of policy. The study recommends that tobacco control should be included as a vital ingredient contributing towards the attainment of the Millennium Development Goals. To this end, countries are encouraged to become Parties to the WHO Framework Convention on Tobacco Control, which is an essential tool to bring about tobacco control in all countries, whatever their stage of socio-economic development.

The Millennium Development Goals And Tobacco Control:

The Millennium Development Goals and Tobacco Control Katharine M. Esson, S. R. Leeder, 2004 This study demonstrates the relevance of tobacco control in achieving each of the eight United Nations Millennium Development Goals. It outlines the occurrence of the high yet increasing prevalence of tobacco use in the developing world and documents the negative impact that tobacco cultivation and tobacco use have on poverty and development. Global partnership is deemed to be important in strengthening tobacco control which all nations and their development agencies are urged to address as an aspect of policy. The study recommends that tobacco control should be included as a vital ingredient contributing towards the attainment of the Millennium Development Goals. Children and the Millennium Development Goals Ki-mun Pan, UNICEF., 2007 This report provides new information and analysis on how far the world has come in reducing child and maternal mortality and malnutrition ensuring universal primary education protecting children against abuse exploitation and violence and combating HIV AIDS. It is based on an extensive and valuable set of reports by United Nations Member States which show that results are mixed but positive in many respects. In the five years since the Special Session there has been progress in many countries but the national reports make clear that actions are still needed everywhere to accelerate progress. Health and the Millennium Development Goals World Health Organization, 2005 The report Health and the Millennium Development Goals presents data on progress on the health goals and targets and looks beyond the numbers to analyze why improvements in health have been slow and to suggest what must be done to change this. The report points to weak and inequitable health systems as a key obstacle including particularly a crisis in health personnel and the urgent need for sustainable health financing. Building up and strengthening health systems is vital if more progress is to be made towards the Millennium Development Goals. MDGs the World Health Organization WHO said in a new report Unless urgent investments are made in health systems current rates of progress will not be sufficient to meet most of the Goals. Key Recommendations of Health in the Millennium Development Goals To strengthen health systems and ensure they are equitable to ensure that health is prioritized within overall development and economic policies to develop health strategies that respond to the diverse and evolving needs of countries to mobilize needed resources for health in poor countries and to improve the quality of health data. Issues in Global Environment: Globalization and Global Change Research: 2011 Edition, 2012-01-09 Issues in Global Environment Globalization and Global Change Research 2011 Edition is a ScholarlyEditions eBook that delivers timely authoritative and comprehensive information about Global Environment Globalization and Global Change Research.
