his face Very well sir she said As you like In a bit the room will be warmer He made no answer and had turned his face away from her again and Mrs Hall feeling that her conversational advances were ill timed laid the rest of the table things in a quick staccato and whisked out of the room When she returned he was still standing there like a man of stone his back hunched his collar turned up his dripping hat brim turned down hiding his face and ears completely She put down the eggs and bacon with considerable emphasis and called rather than said to him Your lunch is served sir Thank you he said at the same time and did not stir until she was closing the door Then he swung round and approached the table As she went behind the bar to the kitchen she heard a sound repeated at regular intervals Chirk chirk chirk it went the sound of a spoon being rapidly whisked round a basin That girl she said There I clean forgot it It's her being so long And while she herself finished mixing the mustard she gave Millie a few verbal stabs for her excessive slowness She had cooked the ham and eggs laid the table and done everything while Millie help indeed had only succeeded in delaying the mustard And him a new guest and wanting to stay Then she filled the mustard pot and putting it with a certain stateliness upon a gold and black tea tray carried it into the parlour She rapped and entered promptly As she did so her visitor moved quickly so that she got but a glimpse of a white object disappearing behind the table It would seem he was picking something from the floor She rapped down the mustard pot on the table and then she noticed the overcoat and hat had been taken off and put over a chair in front of the fire A pair of wet boots threatened rust to her steel fender She went to these things resolutely I suppose I may have them to dry now she said in a voice that brooked no denial Leave the hat said her visitor in a muffled voice and turning she saw he had raised his head and was sitting looking at her For a moment she stood gaping at him too surprised to speak
