The Meditations Of My Heart:

The Meditations of My Heart Robert Burton, 2019-05-16 The intention of this book is to help you develop your own meditations When we hear the word meditation there may be a variety of thoughts that come to mind Various forms of meditation are practiced throughout the world In order to understand how the term is used in the creation of these writings we should first take a journey into Biblical meditation The oldest languages in the world have their origin in the Middle East and ancient Hebrew is one of those languages Within the Hebrew culture we find the word Hagah which translated into English means to meditate The word meditate first appears in Joshua 1 8 where it says to meditate day and night on God s Word Perhaps the most well known passage where we find Hagah is in Psalm 1 2 where again it encourages us to meditate on God s Word day and night The idea in both verses is that of chewing Just as chewing our food many times before swallowing will aid in efficient digestion so the continual examination of God s Word will bring wisdom and understanding The New Testament Greek word meletao translated meditate renders to care for to attend to to practice to be diligent to ponder to imagine Therefore we see a connection between Old and New Testament mediation When we put the two together we can conclude that Biblical meditation begins in quiet thought on God s Word but leads to sound and action the Psalmist wrote May the words of my mouth and the mediation of my heart be pleasing acceptable in your sight O Lord my Rock and my Redeemer Psalm 19 14 The Apostle Paul instructed a young minister to devote himself completely to meditating on God s Word With this in mind I have made it a practice to meditate on God s Word by reading a passage over and over while examining each word and its content and by listening to the voice of the Holy Spirit to impart wisdom and understanding My prayer is that you will meditate on these devotional and take notes on what God reveals and speaks to you personally Then put your meditation into action by stepping out in faith equipped with God s wisdom

Townsend,2018-03-22 In this two week devotional you will read inspiring personal stories that will encourage you to live boldly for the Lord and face every obstacle with a renewed hope in Christ It is important that we always keep the word of God close to our hearts and fresh in our minds so that we can release the word from our mouth when trouble comes our way The bible declares in Psalm 1 2 3 that if we meditate on God s word we will be like trees with strong roots that are able to withstand any storm or strong wind We do not have to buckle under the pressures of life My desire is to be able to stand for God and always make Him smile So prayer is simple Lord let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart be acceptable in your sight O Lord my strength and my Redeemer Amen *Contemplations and meditations on the public life of ...
