The Bay Of Angels A Novel:

The Bay Of Angels Anita Brookner, 2013-01-24 It was at Millie's party on that Friday evening that she met her second husband my stepfather to be and thus changed both our lives Zo is delighted when her widowed mother marries Simon a generous older man who owns a villa in Nice However the long enchanted visits to France she enjoys come to an abrupt end when Simon suffers a bad fall Zo and her mother finding themselves surrounded by well meaning strangers must learn how and how not to trust appearances One of her very best possibly her finest reverberates long after it's put down Brookner in all her wisdom eloquence and power Spectator Art and Life in the Novels of Anita Brookner Eileen

Williams-Wanquet, 2004 This book treats all of Brookner's twenty-two short novels as one monolithic fiction The autobiographical element in this controversial author's fiction is taken as a starting point to explore the complex interplay of art and life Autobiography as a form of emplotment of life is the creative matrix governing the whole oeuvre which is realistically rooted in time and space The study draws on narrative theory contemporary theories of fiction and recent feminist and ethical criticism It shows how Brookner's work combines and opposes both realistic and modernist modes of writing and their philosophical underpinnings The novels too often misread as anti feminist and resolutely pre modern appear to be more essentially postmodern than is usually acknowledged through a heightened awareness of the role played by narrative in constructing our sense of reality and of self The pervasive intertextuality habitually ignored or taken to be simply a form of intellectual snobbery is the key to understanding how the novels tackle questions of moral life as encoded in narrative discourse and fine art In addressing the questions of how life should have been lived Brookner's self reflexive and ironical fiction subversively rewrites the traditional moral codes embodied in romance and which have determined the behaviour of women Finally this study examines the function of writing as a performative act and the role played by repetition Bay of Angels Margaret Rome, 1989-01-01 The Herald, 2002 Death's Angel: Lost Angels Book 3
