The Music of George Harrison Thomas MacFarlane, 2019-04-08 George Harrison was one of the most prolific popular music composers of the late 20th century During his tenure with the Beatles he caught the wave of 1960s pop culture and began channeling its pervasive influence through his music Often described as The Invisible Singer his solo recordings reveal him to be an elusive yet essential element in the Beatles sound The discussion of George Harrison's Beatles tracks featured in the text employs a Songscape approach that blends accessible music analysis with an exploration of the virtual space created on the sound recording This approach is then used to explore Harrison's extensive catalog of solo works which due to their varied cultural sources seem increasingly like early examples of Global Pop In that sense the music of George Harrison may ultimately be viewed as an important locus for pan cultural influence in the 20th century making this book essential reading for those interested in the history of songwriting and recording as well as the cultural study of popular music

Lennon and McCartney Thomas MacFarlane, 2022-09-30 Lennon and McCartney Painting with Sound explores the work of two of the most influential composers of the twentieth century Five decades after the breakup of the Beatles the music of John Lennon and Paul McCartney continues to fascinate and inspire Evidence suggests that their uniquely eclectic approach can be traced back to the Liverpool College of Art Following on that idea this book explores the creative dialogue between John Lennon and Paul McCartney both with the Beatles and on their own that grew out of that early influence The book is presented in three sections I Stretching the Canvas considers the Liverpool College of Art as the backdrop for John and Paul s early collaborations with painter and musician Stuart Sutcliffe This is followed by discussions of select works created by the Beatles between 1962 69 II Extending the Space focuses on the long distance creative dialogue between Lennon and McCartney as demonstrated in their respective solo recordings of the 1970s III New Colours considers the final works of the Lennon and McCartney creative dialogue as well as various McCartney solo projects released in the years that followed Lennon s death in 1980 Here the focus is on Paul s development as a painter its effect on his creativity and his subsequent efforts to establish the Liverpool Institute for Performing Arts as a world class arts conservatory The Beatles Hunter Davies,1985 An in depth look at the Beatles from childhood through the 1970s The Beatles H.
