The Beatles The First Us Visit:

Albert Maysles Joe McElhaney, 2010-10-01 Albert Maysles has created some of the most influential documentaries of the postwar period. Such films as Salesman, Gimme Shelter, and Grey Gardens continue to generate intense debate about the ethics and aesthetics of the documentary form. In this in-depth study, Joe McElhaney offers a novel understanding of the historical relevance of Maysles. By closely focusing on Maysles's expressive use of his camera, particularly in relation to the filming of the human figure, this book situates Maysles's films within not only documentary film history but film history in general, arguing for their broad-ranging importance to both narrative film and documentary cinema. Complete with an engaging interview with Maysles and a detailed comparison of the variant releases of his documentary on the Beatles, What's Happening The Beatles in the U.S.A. and The Beatles The First U.S. Visit, this work is a pivotal study of a significant filmmaker.

Baby Boomers and Popular Culture Brian Cogan, Thom Gencarelli Ph.D., 2014-11-25 The Boomers are the generation that changed everything from economics to politics to popular culture. This book examines the myriad ways and long-reaching consequences of the now fully grown-up Baby Boomer generation on America. Once upon a time the members of the Baby Boomer generation were young, idealistic, and hungry to change the world. And they did create sweeping, irreversible changes throughout American society, but probably not in the ways their younger selves imagined they would. Now that the Boomers are in their late adult or retirement years, their tremendous legacy can clearly be perceived. In retrospect, the paths the members of this generation took to come to power and how they came to terms with that power are also apparent. This single-volume work supplies a broad yet detailed critical guide to the Boomer Generation, containing essays on key people, moments, and phenomena not only during the Boomers' 1960s heyday but also their extensive influences on American culture decades afterward. The contributors address key topics such as the rise of feminism, Civil Rights, the Vietnam War, and the anti-war movement; the Beatles, the Grateful Dead, and rock n' roll; gay rights, idealism, narcissism, and materialism; the influence of television on America; and vice versa, and the transition of Boomers from being Yippies to Yuppies. This work is an ideal text for students in undergraduate or graduate courses in television studies, media studies, cultural studies, and American studies, and is highly appropriate as a supplemental text in literature history and philosophy surveys.

1968 and Global Cinema Christina Gerhardt, Sara Saljoughi, 2018-10-17 The volume is ideal for graduate and undergraduate courses on the long sixties, political cinema, 1968, and new waves in art history, cultural studies, and film and media studies.
