Also Who's who in the Movies and the Yearbook of the American Screen ... ,1923 The Best Moving Pictures of 1922-23, Also Who's who in the Movies and the Yearbook of the American Screen Robert Emmet Sherwood,1923 Moving Pictures Budd Schulberg,2012-07-31 The Oscar winning screenwriter of On the Waterfront recounts his life his career and how Hollywood became the dream factory it still is today Kirkus Reviews When Seymour Wilson Budd Schulberg moved from New York to Los Angeles as a child Hollywood's filmmaking industry was just getting started To some the region was still more famous for its citrus farms than its movie studios In this iconic memoir Schulberg the son of one of Tinseltown's most influential producers recounts the rise of the studios the machinations of the studio heads and the lives of some of cinema's earliest and greatest stars Even as Hollywood grew to become one of the country's most powerful cultural and economic engines it retained the feel of a company town for decades Schulberg's sparkling recollections offer a unique insider view of both the glitter and dark side of the dream factory's early years This ebook features an illustrated biography of Budd Schulberg including rare images and never before seen documents from the author's estate Stroheim Arthur Lennig,2000-01-27 Erich von Stroheim 1885 1957 was one of the giants in American film history Stubborn arrogant and colorful he saw himself as a cinema artist which led to conflicts with producers and studio executives who complained about the inflated budgets and extraordinary length of his films Stroheim achieved great notoriety and success but he was so uncompromising that he turned his triumph into failure He was banned from ever directing again and spent his remaining years as an actor Stroheim's life has been wreathed in myths many of his own devising Arthur Lennig scoured European and American archives for details concerning the life of the actor and director and he counters several long accepted claims Stroheim's tales of military experience are almost completely fictitious the von in his name was an affectation adopted at Ellis Island in 1909 and counter to his own claim he did not participate in the production of The Birth of a Nation in 1914 Wherever Stroheim lived he was an outsider a Jew in Vienna an Austrian in southern California an American in France This contributed to an almost pathological need to embellish and obscure his past yet it also may have been the key to his genius both behind and in front of the camera As an actor Stroheim threw himself into his portrayals of evil men relishing his epithet The Man You Love to Hate As a director he immersed himself in every facet of production including script writing and costume design In 1923 he created his masterpiece Greed infamous for its eight hour running time Stroheim returned to acting saving some of his finest performances for La Grande Illusion 1937 and Billy Wilder's Sunset Boulevard 1950 a role he hated probably because it was too similar to the story of his own life The Most Typical Avant-Garde David E. James,2005-05-30 Los Angeles has nourished a dazzling array of independent cinemas avant garde and art cinema ethnic and industrial films This panoramic history of film production outside the commercial studio system reconfigures Los Angeles rather than New York as the true centre of avant garde cinema in the US

Hollywood on the Hudson Richard Koszarski, 2008 Thomas Edison invented his motion picture system in New Jersey in the 1890s and within a few years most American filmmakers could be found within a mile or two of the Hudson River They planted themselves here because they needed the artistic and entrepreneurial energy that D W Griffith realized New York had in abundance But as the going rate for land and labor skyrocketed and their business grew more industrialized most of them moved out The way most historians explain it the role of New York in the development of American film ends here In Hollywood on the Hudson Richard Koszarski rewrites an important part of the history of American cinema During the 1920s and 1930s film industry executives had centralized the mass production of feature pictures in a series of gigantic film factories scattered across Southern California while maintaining New York as the economic and administrative center But as Koszarski reveals many writers producers and directors also continued to work here especially if their independent vision was too big for the Hollywood production line East Coast filmmakers Oscar Micheaux Rudolph Valentino Ben Hecht Charles MacArthur Paul Robeson Gloria Swanson Max Fleischer and others quietly created a studio system without back lots long term contracts or seasonal production slates They substituted newsreel photography for Hollywood glamour targeted niche audiences instead of middle American families ignored accepted dramatic conventions and pushed the boundaries of motion picture censorship Rebellious and unconventional they saw the New York studios as laboratories not factories and used them to pioneer the development of new technologies from talkies to television new genres new talent and ultimately an entirely new vision of commercial cinema
