The Beckoning Land:

The Beckoning World Douglas Bauer, 2022-11 The Beckoning World is set in the first quarter of the twentieth century and follows Earl Dunham from the age of twelve to his early fifties. We meet him as a boy about to flee his abusive coal miner father for a life in the world the beckoning world which he is sure and it is the only thing he is sure of will take him lyrically away from the one in which he is lived. And so having fled he traces the Midwest's bituminous seams resuming the work he is known his weeks comprised of six days mining coal and from early spring until sometime in late fall Sundays in the light playing baseball. Camp teams pick up games all that matters to Earl is that he plays that he pitches and gets ever better at it. Until a day of high serendipity a major league scout happens on a game signs Earl to a contract and he begins a life a dream he had no idea was a life a man could dream. But dreams sometimes suffer from a lovely abundance and in Earl's case her name is Emily Marchand. She is a dreamer in her own right but of a vastly different sort a beautiful young woman who is also set out on an adventure one that is both like and unlike his to learn some things about the world. When she meets Earl she soon discovers that the world she wants to learn about is him. Their love is quickly deep and coming with it are heartbreaking complications that make its growth its textured world appear impossible. The Beckoning Hand etc. Grant
