The Best Of 50s Tv:

The Best of 50s TV Michael McCall, 1992 A look back at the golden age of television recalls the contributions of TV's legendary stars and the programs they made memorable

Television Introductions Vincent Terrace, 2013-11-07 Since the beginning of network television many shows have been preceded by an announcement or theme song that served various purposes In the 1950s and 60s it was common for announcers to declare that a program had been brought to you by a sponsor who paid for the privilege of introducing a show Other programs such as The Twilight Zone Star Trek and The Odd Couple provided a brief encapsulation of the show's subject matter a practice that has continued for recent shows like Alias Battlestar Galactica Person of Interest and the various editions of Law Order In Television Introductions Narrated TV Program Openings since 1949 Vincent Terrace has assembled openings for more than nine hundred television shows from the past seven decades The only documented history of narrated television program introductions this volume is arranged by type of programming such as comedy drama Western game show soap opera and children's show In addition to quoting the opening material entries provide information about each show's network history and years of broadcast Many entries include descriptions of the show the names of announcers and a list of main cast members as well as a sponsor pitch exactly as spoken Openings for programs with multiple introductions like The Adventures of Ozzie and Harriet and Charlie's Angels are also included For programs that featured new guest stars every episode such as game shows and variety programs Terrace has selected a representative introduction In addition to the theme song credits found in the main text there are also appendixes of theme songs and their composers and/or singers as well as a listing of commercial releases on DVD VHS CD and LP of shows and their soundtracks A comprehensive resource for researchers and pop culture aficionados alike Television Introductions provides a fascinating look at this neglected part of TV history

Invisible Stars Donna L. Halper, 2001 This artful social history considers our culture's expectations of women and how those expectations changed throughout the twentieth century how the advent of television changed the landscape of employment opportunities for women in broadcasting and how both television and radio communicate about gender roles

Loss of Innocence Melvin E. Matthews Jr., 2019-05-01 America was certainly the big winner of World War II being the last major country intact Euphoria hubris and a naive self-confidence became hallmarks of the people This hubris was dented a bit in the 1950s when scandals erupted around the TV quiz shows that made everyone feel so smart and the U 2 spy incident of 1960 that revealed Americans were being lied to by the government The book argues that these two events began the credibility gap that engulfed the nation later in the 1960s and continues to haunt us to this day When the War ended the United States still had its economy infrastructure and industry intact Taking up where the British Empire left off the powerful new America expanded its influence around the globe Suddenly light years ahead of any competitor Americans abandoned themselves to a haze of consumerism and entertainment trusting that they were safe and could not be harmed The contestants on the big money quiz shows turned out to be fakes and the respected TV executives were also revealed to be liars and cheats Far worse was yet to come The United States government was caught in a lie regarding the CIA s U 2 reconnaissance planes overflying the Soviet Union On the eve of a crucial summit meeting in 1960 the USSR knocked Gary Powers out of the sky along with plenty of incriminating hardware and data Moscow delayed revealing what it knew and Washington spent ten days denying it was a spy plane then denying that President Eisenhower was aware of it The world was turning into a very scary place and soon American schoolchildren were being taught to duck under their desks if a bomb should strike Fear began to percolate into the heart of the nation

Syndicated Television Hal Erickson,2024-10-09 Here is an excellent reference book on first run syndication the distribution of programs either made exclusively for non network play or of programs intended for network telecasts but ultimately making their debuts in syndication Bringing together information not easily found this work covers the classics such as Sea Hunt Highway Patrol The Merv Griffin Show and the Muppet Show as well as such once popular but now obscure productions as China Smith Ripcord and The Littlest Hobo Coverage goes back to 1947 and the book includes a number of series ignored in other works The first section is an overview of the concept of syndication from its earliest application in the newspaper world to the attempt by Fox Television to become a fourth network The next four sections each cover ten years of syndication listing the shows with full background who produced them and why who liked them and why etc alphabetically by title under the following genres Adventure Mystery Children s Comedy Drama Game Quiz Informational Music Variety Religious Sports Talk Interview Travel Documentary Westerns and Women s

TV Creators James L. Longworth, Jr.,2002-05-01 This sequel provides yet another dozen of today s most acclaimed writers and producers an open uncensored forum in which they discuss everything from their work ethic to the political social and economic issues affecting the television industry The West Wing C S I and Judging Amy are just a few of the dramas that launched a new era of television at the turn of the millennium TV Creators gives scholars and fans alike an exclusive firsthand account of the lives philosophies and contributions of some of the best television scribes of the past two decades TV Creators Volume Two includes revelations such as Aaron Sorkin The West Wing admitting that he is not a natural storyteller and Martha Williamson Touched by an Angel announcing that There is nothing more gender blind than an executive producer who desperately needs a good writer Glenn Gordon Caron Moonlighting Now Joss Whedon Buffy the Vampire Slayer Roy Huggins The Fugitive Clifton Campbell Profiler Barbara Hall Judging Amy Anthony Zuiker CSI Crime Scene Investigation John McNamara The Fugitive and Don Bellisario JAG Magnum P I
