Martin Evans, Emmanuel Godin

France Since The Second World War:

France Since the Second World War Tyler Edward Stovall, 2002 Asking how France has managed to preserve and shape her sense of national identity in the intervening years since the war Professor Stovall explores the French postwar recovery and the 30 years of prosperity that followed

France Since 1815 Martin Evans, Emmanuel Godin, 2014-01-21 Part of the Modern History for Modern Languages Series France since 1815 provides an accessible overview of the major socio political changes in France during this period Designed for area studies students studying French it presents the historical context necessary for language students to understand the complexities of contemporary French society Adopting a chronological approach it surveys nearly two hundred years of French history with events covered including The French Revolution The Bourbon Restoration The Third Republic Occupied France The Fourth Republic The Gaullist Revolution and France after 2003 This revised edition includes new material that focuses on Chirac's second mandate Iraq war religion suburbs and the inability impossibility of carrying on with reform an assessment of the controversial Sarkozy presidency and a final chapter covering the last ten years culminating in the results of the French presidential elections in 2012 Features include clear timelines of main events and suggested topics for discussion glossary inserts throughout of key terms and concepts the use of primary documents to re create and understand the past free access to a website <http://www.port.ac.uk/special/france1815to2003> containing a wealth of complementary material Drawing on the best scholarship particular emphasis has been given to the role of political memory the contribution of women and the impact of colonialism and post colonialism The relationship between France and her European partners is analysed in greater depth and there are new sections explicitly situating France and the French within a wider transnational global perspective

The French at War, 1934-1944 Nicholas Atkin, 2001 Covering the Occupation the Vichy regime the Resistance and collaboration Nick Atkin provides an introduction to the years 1934-1944 France's most contentious decade

Gender and French Identity after the Second World War, 1944-1954 Kelly Ricciardi Colvin, 2017-09-07 The enfranchisement of women in Charles de Gaulle's France in 1944 is considered a potent element in the nation's self crafted triumphant World War Two narrative the French conquered by the Germans valiantly resisted until they rescued themselves and built a new democracy honoring France's longstanding liberal traditions Kelly Ricciardi Colvin's Gender and French Identity after the Second World War 1944-1954 calls that potent element into question By analyzing a range of sources including women's magazines trials memoirs and spy novels this book explores the ways in which culture was used to limit the power of the female vote It exposes a wide network of constructed behavioral norms that supported a conservative vision of French identity Taken together they depicted men as virile Resisters for French democracy and history and women as solely domestic support Indeed Colvin shows that women's access to the vote emerged alongside an explosion of cultural messages that encouraged them to retreat into the home to find mates to have millions of beautiful babies in the words of de Gaulle and not to challenge patriarchy in any way This is a vital study for understanding the nature of postwar France and women's history in 20th century Europe Women in France Since 1789 Susan Foley, 2017-03-14 This compelling study traces the changes in women's lives in France from 1789 to the present Susan K Foley surveys the patterns of women's experiences in the socially segregated society of the early nineteenth century and then traces the evolution of their lifestyles to the turn of the twenty first century when many of the earlier social distinctions had disappeared Focusing on women's contested place within the political nation Women in France since 1789 examines The on going strength of notions of sexual difference Recurrent debates over gender The anxiety created by women's perceived departure from ideals of womanhood Major controversies over matters such as reproductive rights significant cultural changes and women's often under estimated political roles By addressing and exploring these key issues Foley demonstrates women's efforts over two centuries to create a place in society on their own terms The EU as global actor and its influence on the global gender regime Stefanie Kessler, 2009-02-16 Research Paper postgraduate from the year 2008 in the subject Politics Topic European Union grade B 1 7 University of Auckland language English abstract In the last years the European Union EU transformed the European gender regime towards gender equality thoroughly This dissertation deals with the question of the EU's external influence on transforming societies Is the external influence coherent with internal claims Trade is the EU's most important external policy area The EU is an economic giant based on the largest single market in the world Thus the EU has power in and through trade The EU makes increasingly the adaptation of normative standards a condition to access its market Does the EU integrate also standards on gender equality And does the EU transform gender regimes globally through trade What impacts does the EU have on gender regimes This dissertation examines gender impacts in the Sustainability Impact Assessments that show possible impacts of trade agreements between the EU and its partners The analysis shows that gender is secondary to economic growth and not directed towards gender equality As a consequence the EU does not use its power through trade and the coherence of internal and external efforts is questionable

France During World War II Thomas Rodney Christofferson, Michael Scott Christofferson, 2006 This title provides an introduction to almost every aspect of the French experience during World War II by integrating political diplomatic military social cultural and economic history It chronicles the battles and campaigns that stained French soil with blood France Stanley Hoffmann, 1963 Formation of Contract: A Comparative Study Under English, French, Islamic, and Iranian Law Parviz Owsia, 1994-02-07 This major reference work compares the formation of contract in the legal systems of England France Iran and other Islamic systems The Preliminary Part gives a historical sketch and describes the sources of law of the four legal systems It then describes the development and general theory of contract law in the four systems Part One then analyses in detail the basic notions of formation of contract including the range of psychological elements and their means of expression The author then goes on to describe and compare the function and determination of offer and acceptance in the four legal systems Part Two analyses the mechanism of formation and import of a contract in respect of both offer and acceptance The book has been extensively researched and includes references to Roman law and other modern legal systems
