Helen Binyon

Strings Hands Shadows:

Strings, Hands, Shadows John Bell, Detroit Institute of Arts, 2000 Puppetry is arguably the most widespread form of performance. The artistry of puppetry includes aspects of the visual arts, theatre, music, and dance. Puppets can be traced as far back as ancient Egypt, Greece, and Rome and are found today in cultures worldwide across the Americas, Europe, Africa, and Asia. John Bell shows how puppets have been used to relay myths, poke fun at political figures, comment on cultural events of the period, express moral stories, and entertain adults and children alike. This richly illustrated book gives a historical overview and looks at the wide variety of this traditional art form. From European and Asian puppets in modern and ancient times to the Puppet Modernism movements, the book explores the important innovators and innovations of puppetry. Brief biographies of key figures such as Tony Sarg, credited with creating the first over-life-size puppets used for parades; Paul McPharlin, creator of Punch's Circus; and Jim Henson, world-renowned creator of many puppets, including the Muppets, help describe the evolution of puppetry. Definitions and descriptions of a variety of puppet styles, including shadow puppets, marionettes, hand puppets, rod puppets, and many others, add to the understanding of this fascinating form of art. With over one hundred color illustrations, this book highlights the lives of such characters as Kermit the Frog, Punch, and Judy, Jack Pumpkinhead, and the traditional Chinese puppet Te Yung to reveal the ways that puppets have become an integral part of many cultures. Captivating and fun, this book offers valuable insight into the wonderful world of puppetry.

Strings, Hands, Shadows John Bell, Detroit Institute of Arts, 2005 ILL: 186426958 Strings, Hands, Shadows: A Modern Puppet History, Hand Shadow Fun Frank Jacobs, Henry Bursill, 2015-03-18 Detailed illustrations depict the formation of 28 images using only hands and fingers. Entertain friends and family with shadow pictures of a bird, bunny, elephant, and other figures. Shadow Upon the Dream Bert Casper, 2007-12 Two suns govern life on the desert world Barr'n, violent Yukhara, which burns down mercilessly and makes the desert brutal and violent, and gentle Gajhavita, which restores the balance of life. Like the suns, those who live in the desert are violent and kind, searching for balance between the two extremes. A boy must find his true purpose and destiny in the desert he was born in, which leads him on a journey of discovery during which he encounters six alien races. To unlock the mystery of why the Six came to the desert, he must solve the riddles left by the ancients and finds that his own origin is a part of the mystery of the riddles.

Puppetry, The Wind, the Kite, the String Edwin Willwerth, 2007-12 Two great writers and their books that have had an influence on me in the writing of this book are Jonathan Swift (1667-1745) and John Bunyan (1628-1688). Jonathan Swift's masterpiece titled Gulliver's Travels was an allegorical attack on the hypocrisy of human behavior that he witnessed in almost every level of life in England, especially on the political stage. John Bunyan was the author of another famous allegorical book about a soul in search of salvation, Pilgrim's Progress. I do not believe this book will in any way approach the level of these two great masterpieces, but like Swift and Bunyan, I too have some comments about the behavior of my fellow Spacelanders as I like to refer to them. What do they really believe in What have they committed and dedicated their lives to Because I believe the answers to these questions are the determining factors of their behavior Like all allegorical books you will need a great imagination But as Oscar Wilde said Imagination is a quality given man to compensate him for what he is not and a sense of humor was provided to console him for what he is Edwin Willwerth has been married for over fifty years and is the father of three children He was a high school mathematics teacher for thirty years Besides teaching in several public and private schools within the United States he has also taught in Paraguay for one year Nepal for two years and China for six months He has been very active in his local church serving for a number of years as a Sunday School teacher and later as head of the Sunday School Department He was the Missionary Director within his church for several years He has also spent time on Missionary projects in Haiti and Campeche Mexico

Practical Puppetry A-Z Carol R. Exner,2005-09-08 Puppetry is an exciting flexible malleable art form that can engage the creative forces of children or adults Puppets can not only tell a story they can be used to enhance the curriculum present an idea or a concept in a compelling way or teach any number of necessary skills Children and adults presenting a puppet play are given a sense of their own inventive power This reference work offers an A to Z view of working with puppets It covers everything from the basic strategies of advertising and marketing puppet productions to assembling the puppets out of household materials such as paper bags cereal boxes or gloves to the more elaborate sculpting of armatures Stages curtains and props are also discussed along with the history of puppetry Numerous illustrations give a visual of many of the finished products This work concludes with an annotated bibliography and index
