Violence and Naming David E. Johnson, 2019-04-15 Reclaiming the notion of literature as an institution essential for reflecting on the violence of culture history and politics Violence and Naming exposes the tension between the irreducible constitutive violence of language and the reducible empirical violation of others Focusing on an array of literary artifacts from works by journalists such as Elena Poniatowska and Sergio González Rodríguez to the Zapatista communiqués to Roberto Bolaño's The Savage Detectives and 2666 this examination demonstrates that Mexican culture takes place as a struggle over naming with severe implications for the rights and lives of women and indigenous persons Through rereadings of the Conquest of Mexico the northern Mexican femicide the Zapatista uprising in Chiapas the disappearance of the forty three students at Iguala in 2014 and the 1999 abortion rights scandal centering on Paulina which revealed the tenuousness of women's constitutionally protected reproductive rights in Mexico Violence and Naming asks how societies can respond to violence without violating the other This essential question is relevant not only to contemporary Mexico but to all struggles for democracy that promise equality but instead perpetuate incessant cycles of repression Database Systems for Advanced Applications Arnab Bhattacharya, Janice Lee Mong Li, Divyakant Agrawal, P. Krishna Reddy, Mukesh Mohania, Anirban Mondal, Vikram Goyal, Rage Uday Kiran, 2022-04-22 The three volume set LNCS 13245 13246 and 13247 constitutes the proceedings of the 26th International Conference on Database Systems for Advanced Applications DASFAA 2022 held online in April 2021 The total of 72 full papers along with 76 short papers are presented in this three volume set was carefully reviewed and selected from 543 submissions Additionally 13 industrial papers 9 demo papers and 2 PhD consortium papers are included The conference was planned to take place in Hyderabad India but it was held virtually due to the COVID 19 pandemic The Structure of Literary Understanding Stein Haugom Olsen, 1978 This is a paperback edition of what has become an important contribution to aesthetics and the theory of literature Writing and Publishing Qualitative Research Patricia Leavy, 2024-02-05 Ideal for graduate students and more seasoned qualitative researchers this is the first guide to writing and publishing in a range of both scholarly and popular formats from journal articles and monographs to op eds and fictional works Award winning author Patricia Leavy covers everything from how to develop a unique writer's voice to how to craft a successful book proposal understand a publishing contract establish relationships with editors and much more The book is filled with effective tools for using data and theory in different genres of writing building a profile as a scholar and getting research findings out into the world Instructive features throughout include dos and don'ts writing prompts annotated sample letters and proposals excerpts from published works and end of chapter writing activities

Arp, 1988-01-01 The Rules of Art Pierre Bourdieu, 1996 Written with verve and intensity and a good bit of wordplay this is the long awaited study of Flaubert and the modern literary field that constitutes the definitive work on the sociology of art by one of the world's leading social theorists Drawing upon the history of literature and art from the mid nineteenth century to the present Bourdieu develops an original theory of art conceived as an autonomous value He argues powerfully against those who refuse to acknowledge the interconnection between art and the structures of social relations within which it is produced and received As Bourdieu shows art's new autonomy is one such structure which complicates but does not eliminate the interconnection The literary universe as we know it today took shape in the nineteenth century as a space set apart from the approved academies of the state No one could any longer dictate what ought to be written or decree the canons of good taste Recognition and consecration were produced in and through the struggle in which writers critics and publishers confronted one another
