Struggling With The Communist Legacy:

Struggling with the Communist Legacy Patricia Vawter Klein, Arthur Wesley Helweg, Barbara P. McCrea, 1998 Ten established scholars of political science international relations history civilization and the economics of eastern Europe contribute toward understanding of the radical shifts in Eastern Europe Politics, Power and the Struggle for Democracy in South-East Europe Karen Dawisha, Bruce Parrott, 1997-06-13 Edited by two of the world's leading analysts of post communist politics this book brings together distinguished specialists on Bosnia Hercegovina Croatia Macedonia Slovenia Serbia Montenegro Albania Bulgaria and Romania The authors analyse the challenge of building democracy in the countries of the former Yugoslavia riven by conflict and in neighboring states They focus on oppositional activity political cultures that often favour strong presidentialism the role of nationalism and basic socioeconomic trends Karen Dawisha and Bruce Parrott provide theoretical and comparative chapters on post communist political development across the region This book will provide students and scholars with detailed analysis by leading authorities plus the latest research data on recent political and economic developments in each country

Struggles for Belonging Dieter Gosewinkel, 2021-11-04 Citizenship was the most important mark of political belonging in Europe in the twentieth century while estate religion party class and nation lost political significance in the century of extremes This is shown by examining the legal institution of citizenship with its deciding influence on the limits of a political community on inclusion and exclusion Citizenship determined a person's protection equality and freedom and thus his or her chances in life and very survival This book recounts the history of citizenship in Europe as the history of European statehood in the twentieth and early twenty first centuries It does so from three vantage points as the development of a legal institution crucial to European constitutionalism as a measure of an individual's opportunities for self fulfilment ranging from freedom to totalitarian subjugation and as a succession of alternating often sharply divergent political regimes considered from the perspective of their inclusivity and exclusivity and its justification The European history of citizenship is discussed in this book on the basis of six selected countries Great Britain France Germany Czechoslovakia Poland and Russia For the first time a joint history of citizenship in Western and Eastern Europe is told here from the heyday of the nation state to our present day which is marked by the crises of the European Union It is the history of a central legal institution that significantly represents and at the same time determines struggles over migration integration and belonging One of the central concerns of this book is what lessons can be learned when it comes to the future chances of European citizenship

Fidel Castro and Africa's Liberation Struggle Sabella Ogbobode Abidde, Charity Manyeruke, 2020-10-01 The post 1959 Cuban government's engagement with Africa which was led by its charismatic and revolutionary leader Fidel Castro had two connecting dimensions military internationalism and humanitarian internationalism While African states and societies benefited immensely from these engagements it was Fidel Castro's military assistance towards the decolonization of and the pushback of Apartheid South Africa that received the loudest attention and ovation in the developing world Fidel Castro this book argues was never motivated by economic selfish or geopolitical considerations but rather by the altruism and the certainty of his worldview and by the historical connection between the peoples of Cuba and Africa The principle of international solidary socialism and the emancipation of Africa was a much desired aspiration and attainment Beginning covertly in Algeria in 1961 and the Congo and Guinea Bissau in 1964 and more conspicuously in Angola in 1975 Fidel Castro and his socialist government was at the forefront supporting liberation movements in their struggle against colonialism Defining Castro s engagement with Africa was his support for the People s Movement for the Liberation of Angola MPLA against the United States backed Apartheid South Africa which supported the National Liberation Front of Angola FNLA and the National Union for the Total Independence of Angola UNITA The ANC and the Liberation Struggle in South Africa Thula Simpson,2018-10-03 The history of the ANC which is the oldest liberation movement on the African continent is one that has generated a great deal of interest amongst historians in recent years Gone are the days when the history of African nationalism could be relegated to the margins of the study of the South African past Instead with the ANC having ascended to the helm of political power a position it has maintained for over twenty years there can be no question that its history occupies an important and permanent place in the history of the nation This volume gathers together some of the most important contributions to the literature on the ANC s role in South Africa s struggle for liberation Besides important themes such as gender ethnicity and healthcare contributions from leading historians also address why the ANC decided to engage in armed struggle what role the South African Communist Party played in making this decision how the ANC External Mission contributed to the upsurge of mass protest in South Africa in the 1970s and 1980s and the ANC s contribution relative to the other components of the liberation struggle in ensuring the eventual demise of the old racial order The chapters in this book were originally published in the South African Historical Journal the Journal of Southern African Studies and African Studies Gender Dynamics, Feminist Activism and Social Transformation in China Guoguang Wu,Yuan Feng,Helen Lansdowne,2018-11-02 This book explores the extent to which women have been initiators mobilizers and driving forces of social transformation in China The book considers how conceptions of women s roles have changed as China has moved from state socialism to engagement with capitalist globalization examines the growth of women s gender and sexual consciousness and social movements for women s rights including for marginalized social and sex gender groups and discusses women s roles in society state interactions including many forms of social activism cultural events educational innovations and more Overall the book demonstrates that women have not simply been passive receivers of the consequences of the forces of global capitalism but that they have had a profound active impact on social transformation in China The Struggle Against Imperialist War and the Tasks of the Communists Communist International. Congress,1934 Peace Research Abstracts Journal ,2001 The Struggle Inside the Socialist Workers Party : 1979-1983 Sarah Lovell,1992 Heroic Struggle!- Bitter Defeat Bahman Azad,2000 Early reviews have hailed this book as one of the best attempts so far to analyze the errors in theory and practice along with imperialist pressures that dismantled the first socialist union of states Azad employs a consistent scientific methodology as a framework for his discussion one that is helpful to the average reader Over many years of economic research the author viewed the unsolved problems of the socialist societies much as one sees flaws in the space shuttle program or the latest plane these represent the present limits of humanity s achievements in their respective fields There is much to learn from the facts and processes discussed in this book and in turn these will prompt additional questions and further study
