George Goring (1608-1657) Dr Florene S Memegalos,2013-06-28 George Goring was in many ways the archetypal cavalier often portrayed as possessing all the worst characteristics associated with the followers of King Charles I He drank copiously dressed and entertained lavishly gambled excessively abandoned his wife frequently and was quick to resort to swordplay when he felt his honour was at stake Yet he was also an active Member of Parliament and a respected soldier who learnt his trade on the Continent during the Dutch Wars and put his expertise to good use in support of the royalist cause during the English Civil War In this the first modern biography of Goring the main events of his life are interwoven with the wider history of his age Beginning with his family background in Sussex it charts his successes at court and exploits in the service of the Dutch culminating in his experiences at the siege of Breda in 1637 and his role in the Bishops Wars However it is his key role as a royalist general during the Civil War that is the major focus of this book which concludes with Goring s years of exile during the Republic This fascinating and illuminating account of Goring s life character and actions provides not only a fresh examination of this contentious figure but also reveals much about English society and culture in the first half of the seventeenth century     Stuart Tracts, 1603-1693 - Primary Source Edition Charles Harding Firth,2013-10 This is a reproduction of a book published before 1923 This book may have occasional imperfections such as missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc that were either part of the original artifact or were introduced by the scanning process We believe this work is culturally important and despite the imperfections have elected to bring it back into print as part of our continuing commitment to the preservation of printed works worldwide We appreciate your understanding of the imperfections in the preservation process and hope you enjoy this valuable book     Stuart Tracts, 1603-1693; with an Introd. by C.
