The Language of Strong Black Womanhood Karla D. Scott, 2017-09-07 In The Language of Strong Black Womanhood Myths Models Messages and a New Mandate for Self Care Black women of the Baby Boomer generation and Hip Hop generation share messages communicated and models witnessed in their socialization for strength revealing how this mandate endures in Black women's lived experiences They also express concern that self care was not presented as critical for sustaining life as a strong Black woman a concern shared by Black women bloggers who advocate resisting the myth and redefining strength for self care This Black feminist exploration of strong Black womanhood provides an alternative to harmful perceptions constructions and representations of Black women and suggests a mandate to move toward the revolutionary act of Black women's self care

Determined Women Jennifer Birkett, Elizabeth Harvey, 1991-04-23 The essays in this collection look at some of the images and categories which have shaped Western women's sense of themselves in the twentieth century The approach of the collection is interdisciplinary bringing together the perspectives of literary criticism social history and linguistics Its focus is international with contributions on Britain France Germany the United States and Canada The collection shows both the similarity and the diversity of women's experience in a world determined by patriarchal assumptions where women's only hope of change lies in developing a determination of their own

Deserving and Entitled Anne L. Schneider, Helen M. Ingram, 2012-02-01 Public policy in the United States is marked by a contradiction between the American ideal of equality and the reality of an underclass of marginalized and disadvantaged people who are widely viewed as undeserving and incapable Deserving and Entitled provides a close inspection of many different policy arenas showing how the use of power and the manipulation of images have made it appear both natural and appropriate that some target populations benefit from policy while others do not These social constructions of deservedness and entitlement unless challenged become amplified over time and institutionalized into permanent lines of social economic and political cleavage The contributors here express concern that too often public policy sends messages harmful to democracy and contributes significantly to the pattern of uneven political participation in the United States

Let Us Make Men D'Weston Haywood, 2018-09-25 During its golden years the twentieth century black press was a tool of black men's leadership public voice and gender and identity formation Those at the helm of black newspapers used their platforms to wage a fight for racial justice and black manhood In a story that stretches from the turn of the twentieth century to the rise of the Black Power movement D Weston Haywood argues that black people's ideas rhetoric and protest strategies for racial advancement grew out of the quest for manhood led by black newspapers This history departs from standard narratives of black protest black men and the black press by positioning newspapers at the intersections of gender ideology race class identity urbanization the public sphere and black institutional life Shedding crucial new light on the deep roots of African Americans mobilizations around issues of rights and racial justice during the twentieth century Let Us Make Men reveals the critical complex role
