Structures Of Avarice The Bukhala In Medieval Arabic Literature:

Structures of Avarice Fedwa Malti-Douglas, 1985 Structures of Avarice Malti-Douglas, 2023-09-20 Arabic literature is noted for its tradition conscious consistency and sophistication. In the classical period poetry and prose reached a high level of refinement and attained standards which are still being applied in the modern Arab world today. The literature of the modern post classical period is no less sophisticated being a vibrant and flourishing expression of the continued Arabic tradition. The series Studies in Arabic Literature Supplements to the Journal of Arabic Literature founded in 1971 is concerned with all kinds of literary expression in Arabic including the oral and vernacular traditions of both the modern and the classical periods. Studies in the series can be literary historical analytical or comparative in nature and can treat of individual works authors and genres as well as literary traditions in a wider context. Studies dealing with the social political and philosophical backgrounds of Arabic literature are particularly welcome in the series. The series comprises monographs thematic collections of articles handbooks textual editions and annotated translations. Text editions are as a rule accompanied by a translation on facing pages both text editions and translations should include comprehensive critical introductions which give a full and proper appreciation of the text or texts in question.

Tradition, Modernity, and Postmodernity in Arabic Literature Issa J. Boullata, Kamal Abdel-Malek, Wael B. Hallaq, 2000 In this collection of essays various manifestations of traditional as well as modern and postmodern themes and techniques in Arabic literature are explored. For the first time the tripartite concepts of tradition modernity and postmodernity in Arabic literary works are analyzed in one volume.

A Dictionary of Arabic Literary Terms and Devices Marlé Hammond, 2018-04-19 The Dictionary of Arabic Literary Terms covers the most important literary terms relevant to classical and modern Arabic literature. Its 300 entries include technical terms and rhetorical devices themes and motifs concepts historical eras literary schools and movements forms and genres figures and institutions Defining terms such as root play highlighting schools such as the Mahjar poets and exploring concepts such as imaginary evocation the dictionary introduces its readers to the specificities of the Arabic literary tradition. The dictionary is intended to meet the needs of the growing number of students studying Arabic in the English speaking world whose studies include Arabic literature from an early stage. This reference resource equips them to understand the nuances and complexities of the texts they encounter. It is
