Improving Reading and Reading Engagement in the 21st Century Clarence Ng,Brendan Bartlett,2017-05-31 This book presents cutting edge research findings in areas critical to advancing reading research in the 21st century context including new literacies reading motivation strategy instruction and reading intervention studies While students reading performance is currently receiving unprecedented attention there is a lack of research that adopts an international perspective and draws on research expertise from different parts of the world to present a concerted effort discussing key research models and findings on how to improve reading education Addressing this gap in the literature the book also responds to the challenge of promoting higher levels of literacy and supporting and developing readers who can enjoy and critique texts of every genre

National Testing in Schools Bob Lingard, Greg Thompson, Sam Sellar, 2015-11-06 Over the last two decades large scale national or provincial standardised testing has become prominent in the schools of many countries around the globe National Testing in Schools An Australian Assessment draws on research to consider the nature of national testing and its multiple effects including media responses and constructions such as league tables of performance pressures within school systems and on schools effects on the work and identities of principals and teachers and impacts on the experience of schooling for many young people including those least advantaged Using Australia as the case site for global concerns regarding national testing this book will be an invaluable companion for education researchers teacher educators teacher education students and teachers globally

Ten-ager Madonna King, 2021-01-27 An important book that shows that 10 is the new start of a girl's teenage years It raises the issues our girls might not be talking about publicly and guides their parents on how experts believe we should deal with it At ten we know how girls are pigeonholing themselves into what they think they should be Whether they see themselves as academic or not whether they are interested in boys puberty is a reality friendship fights are underway and the influence of social media is impacting With heightened pressure from what they see in the media in movies and on TV our girls are leaving childhood behind well before they hit their teens Not surprisingly emotions can be heightened and relationships can be fraught So many parents struggle to understand the pressures our girls are under and how to deal with their emotional volatility Journalist and social commentator Madonna King has an extraordinary ability to connect with experts schools and the girls themselves to deliver the answers parents need and the communication our girls want TEN AGER is the perfect guide to help parents understand how their daughter is feeling what they need to know what to say and when to stay silent and listen
