The Inuit Hunters Of The North:

The Inuit ,1988      Hunting the Northern Character Tony Penikett,2017-11-15 Canadian politicians like many of their circumpolar counterparts brag about their country's Arctic identity or northern character but what do they mean exactly Stereotypes abound from Dudley Do Right to Northern Exposure but these southern perspectives fail to capture northern realities In this passionate deeply personal account of modern developments in the Canadian North Tony Penikett corrects confused and outdated notions of a region he became fascinated with as a child and for many years called home During decades of service as a legislator mediator and negotiator Penikett bore witness to the advent of a new northern consciousness Out of sight of New Yorkers and far from the minds of Copenhagen's citizens Indigenous and non Indigenous leaders came together to forge new Arctic realities as they dealt with the challenges of the Cold War climate change land rights struggles and the boom and bust of resource megaprojects This lively account of their clashes and accommodations not only retraces the footsteps of Penikett's personal hunt for a northern identity but also tells the story of an Arctic that the world does not yet know      Northern Experience and the Myths of Canadian Culture Renée Hulan,2002 In Northern Experience and the Myths of Canadian Culture Renée Hulan disputes the notion that the north is a source of distinct collective identity for Canadians Through a synthesis of critical historical and theoretical approaches to northern subjects in literary studies she challenges the epistemology used to support this idea By investigating mutually dependent categories of identity in literature that depicts northern peoples and places Hulan provides a descriptive account of representative genres in which the north figures as a central theme including autobiography adventure narrative ethnography fiction poetry and travel writing She considers each of these diverse genres in terms of the way it explains the cultural identity of a nation formed from the settlement of immigrant peoples on the lands of dispossessed indigenous peoples Reading against the background of contemporary ethnographic literary and cultural theory Hulan maintains that the collective Canadian identity idealized in many works representing the north does not occur naturally but is artificially constructed in terms of characteristics inflected by historically contingent ideas of gender and race such as self sufficiency independence and endurance and that these characteristics are evoked to justify the nationhood of the Canadian state      Caribou and Reindeer Hunters of the Northern Hemisphere Lawrence J. Jackson,Paul T. Thacker,1997 Contains 12 articles which provide a variety of perspectives on Rangifer caribou reindeer and its use by prehistoric peoples in the northern latitudes of both the Old and New Worlds Papers cover such topics as the inherent biases in the man the hunter woman the collector view of Upper Paleolithic and Paleo Indian cultures the behavior patterns of and humans in the New World the Paleo Indian record of the earliest Gainey phase in Ontario and Michigan and a variety of Upper Paleolithic situations in Europe Lacks an index      Arctic and Northern Waters Andrew Wilkes,2020-01-05 Do you only have a week to spare For those of us who are time poor but who want to seize the moment either on our own boat or on a charter it's reassuring to know that there are plenty of cruising hubs from where we can enjoy some of the best of the region in only a few days Imray Pocket Pilots are a new series of affordable PDF books companions to the Yachting Monthly series A Week Afloat They visit some ideal destinations and suggest a one week itinerary and include expanded sailing directions for cruising each area based on printed Imray pilot books Familiar Imray chartlets cover marina detail and approaches and photos add both information and colour to the downloads This Imray Pocket Pilot covers The Ionian Greece

The Geography of the Canadian North Robert M. Bone, 2003 This text looks at the dual relationship of the Canadian north as both resource frontier and homeland of many Aboriginal groups Since the last edition of this text many changes have occurred raising the possibility that both the frontier and homeland concepts can become a northern reality These concepts are coherently presented throughout the book and brought to the fore in the concluding chapter
