Space Is the Place John F. Szwed, 2012-07-25 Always riveting Space Is the Place is the definitive biography of one of the great big band leaders pianists and surrealists of jazz The New York Times unparalleled for his purposeful outlandishness a man who exerted a powerful influence over a vast array of artists Sun Ra a k a Herman Poole Sonny Blount was born in Alabama on May 22 1914 But like Father Divine and Elijah Muhammad he made a lifelong effort to obscure many of the facts of his early life After years as a rehearsal pianist for nightclub revues and in blues and swing bands including Wynonie Harris s and Fletcher Henderson s Sun Ra set out in the 1950s to find a way to impart his views about the galaxy black people and spiritual matters through the various incarnations of the Intergalactic Arkestra His repertoire ranging from boogie woogie swing and bebop to free form fusion and whatever Sun Ra was above all a paragon of contradictions profundity and vaudeville technical pianistic virtuosity and irony assiduous attention to arrangements and encouragement of collective improvisation respect for tradition and celebration of the fresh Some might have been bemused by his Afro Platonic neo hermeticism others might have laughed at his egregious excesses But Sun Ra was at once one of the great avant gardists of the latter half of the twentieth century and a black cultural nationalist who extended Afrocentrism from ancient Egypt to the heavens

The Place of the Spirit Sarah Morice-Brubaker, 2013-09-17 Is there any way to talk theologically about the Trinity and place What might the placedness of creation have to do with God s triunity In The Place of the Spirit Sarah Morice Brubaker considers how anxieties about place have influenced Trinitarian theology both what it is asked to do and the language in which it is expressed When one is nervous about collapsing God into created horizons she suggests one is apt to come up with a model of trinity that refuses place Distance becomes a primary way of situating the divine persons in relation to each other Conversely those theologians who wish to avoid a too remote God likewise recruit Trinitarian language to suit that purpose They too give that language a placial gloss expressing triunity in terms of coinherence and mutual indwelling And yet suggests Morice Brubaker the question What is place and how can one talk about God and place is underdetermined within much contemporary Trinitarian thought Thankfully this question has received full on attention in other areas of ethics philosophy and systematic theology This book calls for Trinitarian thought to avail itself of those insights and offers some ways in which it may do so

Designing the City of Reason Ali Madanipour, 2007-04-11 With a practical approach to theory Designing the City of Reason offers new perspectives on how differing belief systems and philosophical approaches impact on city design and development exploring how this has changed before during and after the impact of modernism in all its rationalism Looking at the connections between abstract ideas and material realities this book provides a social and historical account of ideas which have emerged out of the particular concerns and cultural contexts and which inform the ways we live By considering the changing foundations for belief and action and their impact on urban form it follows the history and development of city design in close conjunction with the growth of rationalist philosophy Building on these foundations it goes on to focus on the implications of this for urban development exploring how public infrastructures of meaning are constructed and articulated through the dimensions of time space meaning value and action With its wide ranging subject matter and distinctive blend of theory and practice this book furthers the scope and range of urban design by asking new questions about the cities we live in and the values and symbols which we assign to them Women Reclaiming the City Tigran Haas,2023-04-04 The originality of Women Reclaiming the City lies not only in the variety of themes being presented but also in the variety of all these different highly respected women researchers This book is the first in which current societal themes revolving around urbanism architecture and city planning are put forth solely through female perspectives It reveals the importance of having female lenses on certain societal debates Twenty five leading female urban scholars draw on principles concepts and positions that are foundational to other frameworks and fields specifically critical studies indigenous and ethnic studies postcolonial theory queer theory feminist theory progressive urban theory social ecology urban planning and design architecture urban economics and urban social geography landscape urbanism new urbanism heritage management and urbanism political ecology and cultural studies to present alternatives to the current classical theories and conceptualizations that have failed to engage a truly intersectional analysis of dominant city and urban discourses policies and practices The book is intended for scholars of urban studies policy makers and city planning professionals The Place of God in Piers Plowman and Medieval Art Mary Clemente Davlin,2001 Very few poets except the authors of the Hebrew Scriptures and the New Testament have tried to write in any extended way about God Even Dante confines his vision of Christ and the Trinity to a few passages at the end of Paradiso and most religious lyric poets concentrate more on their own attitudes and reactions to God their prayer longing repentance suffering or joy than on the nature of God Among English poems three narratives Piers Plowman Paradise Lost and Paradise Regained are exceptional in their extensive explicit poetry about god and their direct concern with the mysteries of Biblical faith This work looks at Piers Plowman confronting not only the alterity of culture resulting from a lapse of almost 700 years but also the more profound alterity of the subject matter Alciphron: or, The minute philosopher. 1732. Siris. 1744 George Berkeley,1871 The Academy ,1871 The American Architect and Building News ,1890 The Origin and Development of Religious Belief... Sabine Baring-Gould,1870 Selections from Berkeley George Berkeley,1891 English Mechanic and Mirror of Science and Art ,1893 Popular Mechanics Magazine ,1919 A Commentary on the Holy Scriptures: Ezekiel Johann Peter Lange,1876 Frieze ,2004 The Illustrated London News ,1871 Engineering News ,1892 Reports of Cases Argued and Decided in the Supreme Court of the United States United States. The Top Books of the Year Space Is The Place The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels enthralling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. Space Is The Place : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Space Is The Place : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Space Is The Place : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and thrilling novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
