The Cry for Help Norman L. Farberow, Edwin S. Shneidman, 1961 This film depicts several situations in which police must contend with suicides or suicide attempts The situations include those who attempt suicide while in jail a young man in college who uses a rifle a young woman living at home using pills a middle aged man who contemplates using a handgun when he finds out he has a severe health problem and another woman who slashes her wrists The Cry for Help Norman L. Farberow, Edwin S. Shneidman, 1961 This film depicts several situations in which police must contend with suicides or suicide attempts The situations include those who attempt suicide while in jail a young man in college who uses a rifle a young woman living at home using pills a middle aged man who contemplates using a handgun when he finds out he has a severe health problem and another woman who slashes her wrists Bulletin of Suicidology National Clearinghouse for Mental Health Information (U.S.), 1967 Bulletin of Suicidology, 1967 Man's Fate and God's Choice Bhimeswara Challa, 2021-06-29 Stagnate as a creepy caterpillar or transform into a beautiful butterfly this path breaking book of a rare genre suggests is the seminal choice before mankind and every one of us In this setting the book raises some fundamental questions What is man's rightful place in the cosmos and his manifest destiny on earth Why are we so self-righteously self-destructive Are we a doomed species Or divine beings struggling to overcome the hubris of the human intellect Is God getting weary of mankind How should we synergize human effort and Divine Grace The book posits that any betterment in human behavior needs a cathartic change at the deepest levels That requires diluting the dominance of the mind and reawakening the long dormant intelligence of the human heart To meet that challenge we need minimum numbers a critical mass to create self-sustained momentum for transformation through consciousness change And every single human of this generation should behave in such a way that he or she is that single person whose transformation could make the decisive species scale difference The book offers a menu of ideas and an agenda of action This book could be itself become an input to mobilize that very critical mass it advocates for human transformation Well planned and cohesively written the book is noteworthy for its delightful blend of information and arguments and reveals the depth of the author's understanding of the human predicament This is a closely argued and thought provoking book The Hindu 13 Sept 2011 This book is a gripping exposition on human nature and self transformation without preference to religion Challa has critically provided a foundational argument for a deeper discussion of philosophical and practical ideals concerning self transformation harmonizing the head and the heart is the way for humans to function as spiritual beings Recommended by the USR The US Review of Books The author reflects upon the crisis of contemporary civilizations and outlines a blueprint for a new world order based on progressive spiritual values and change of human consciousness The strength of this treatise is the sweep of Challa's reach and his treatment of a vastly complex set of issues that bedevil humankind today India International Center Quarterly Summer 2012 As a thinker and erudite scholar the author has made a profound study of the world situation and the moral decadence of man This book deserves to be on the shelves of university college and public libraries Triveni Magazine July Sept 2011 It is difficult to pigeon hole this book as a prophetic discourse a journey into the human mind a guide for human survival a spiritual treatise It is an amalgam of all these and more the volume reaches out to those who are already uneasy about the way we on this earth are progressing The Book Review India June 2013      Ethical Issues in Suicide M. Pabst Battin,1995 This book provides a broad systematic and comprehensive exploration of both historical and contemporary argumentation concerning suicide It probes the underlying ethical religious and philosophical issues about self caused death and shows how they are crucial in the current debate      Suicidal Behaviour Diego De Leo,2004 A practical handbook for all those concerned with the prevention of suicide this book is unique in that it is based on the wealth of experience gained over many years in different populations during the WHO EURO Multicenter Study on Suicidal Behaviour With contributions from some of the world s best known investigators as well as those involved in the practical side of suicide prevention this is an invaluable state of the art resource replete with information on the epidemiology of suicidal behavior the relationship between attempted and completed suicide suicidal behavior in particular groups gender differences risk factors and predictors for non fatal and fatal suicidal behavior methods of suicide attitudes towards suicide clinical aspects and treatment and prevention recommendations      Self-Injury Toney Allman,2011-03-31 The Cornell University College of Human Ecology categorizes self injury as intentional carving or cutting of the skin subdermal tissue scratching intentional burning banging or punching oneself and embedding objects under the skin To date sixteen forms of self injury have been documented and recent studies show that there is no one profile for self harm This critical edition discusses self mutilation and other self harm behaviors Chapters explore why some individuals harm themselves the risks of self injury and how to treat and prevent it      Self-Harm Toney Allman,2016-12-15 Self harm is a problem many young adults struggle with silently Decreasing the stigma surrounding this phenomenon is key to ending its prevalence Using charts and full color photographs the underlying causes of this dangerous trend are examined helping readers understand the reasons why they harm themselves and recognize the signs in others Contact information is provided for organizations that young adults can turn to for emotional support and healthier ways to cope with stress      Bioethics for Students Stephen Garrard Post,1999 A collection of articles that consider some of the major questions of bioethics examining topics in the categories of animals death and dying environment and fertility and reproduction      Effects of the Covid-19 Pandemic on Employee Well-Being Raida Abu Bakar,Rosmawani Che Hashim,Man Chung Low,Mohammad Rezaur Razzak,Sharmila Jayasingam,2023-03-30 This book contributes toward the understanding of the human experience at work during the pandemic and its implications on employee well being in the context of Malaysia a developing economy with its own set of unique challenges Very little research has been done about this issue to date particularly in Malaysia This book aims to bridge this gap by examining the Malaysian perspective of the concept of employee well being in detail with the overarching goal of serving as a guide toward overcoming the challenges wrought on by the ever changing post pandemic environment Different conditions and experiences are discussed to contextualize the unique ways in which individuals react to difficulties with an emphasis on how organizations can assist at a micro level to allow employees to overcome such difficulties Suicide, a Cry for Help Helen Kooiman Hosier,1978-01-01 A Cry for Help Mary Elizabeth Giffin,Carol Felsenthal,1983 A parents guide to teenage suicide discusses the growing problem of suicide among adolescents and explains the reasons for suicide how parents can recognize symptoms of depression and where they can find help for themselves and their children Suicide and Crisis Intervention: Survey and Guide to Services Sheila A. Fisher,1973 The Hidden Dimension of Illness Patricia L. Starck,John P. McGovern,1992 The Rising Tide of Suicide Louis Richard Batzler,1988 Second Chance To Live Ernest Legrande,1975 Suicide-Related Behaviour Columba McLaughlin,2007-09-04 Without doubt there is no greater problem facing mental health practitioners than suicide related behaviour Over the last thirty years the data gathered has consistently indicated that suicide is a leading cause of death in young people Currently the data indicates that in some areas suicide is increasing Alongside this the incidence of self harm which has always been high does not seem to be abating Some professionals argue that attempted suicide and self harm are both the same entity In this book it is put forward that they are two sides of the same coin and this coin is called suicide related behaviour This book makes sense of suicide related behaviour in terms of understanding its aetiology The term suicide related behaviour is a general term used to describe all behaviours where the person intended to kill or harm him her self In so doing relevant issues within the phenomenon of suicide related behaviour and specific to both self harm and attempted suicide will be explored and addressed in this book This book includes the following The varying differences within the concept of suicide related behaviour shown by reflecting on some of the authors own experiences Contemporary issues are explored through discussion and student exercises An exploration of terms used and how they can be interpreted Why and how a person would consider suicide related behaviour as an option exploring the descent and response to crisis ranging from biological psychological and social Considers the case for a caring response and the qualities needed in practitioners Suicide Related Behaviour Understanding caring and therapeutic responses is a fundamental read for those students considering a career in mental health care nurses medical students social workers psychologists occupational therapists and other related mental health practitioners
