Abstract: Suicide-related issues are among those that have been the focus of philosophers of all time. The attitude to the problem of suicide as a social phenomenon from biblical times to the present should also be talked about by today's students, so the research work with gifted students will be effective, because today's children wonder who they are, what their mission is and the meaning of life and death raises the question of the social meaning of suicide. Philosophy and religion, law and duty, social and public are intertwined here. Christianity considers suicide a sin. Although there are examples in the Old Testament where cases of voluntary death look like heroic deeds. Suicide becomes an absolutely sinful act at a certain historical time, when it has become too frequent. Adjustments to Christian ethics with its prohibitions were made by the Enlightenment and the right to shorten one's life became one's personal choice. The article presents the research of gifted students on the question of attitudes towards suicide from ancient times to the Middle Ages (group 1); attitudes towards suicide from the Middle Ages to the present (group 2); attitudes towards suicide from the New Age to the present (group 3). The research work is carried out for the purpose of condemning any manifestations of suicidal behavior, deep understanding of this problem from the most ancient times to the present.

Keywords: Will to live, instinct for self-preservation, death of the individual, existential emptiness, altruistic suicide, social norms, suicidology.

Suicide The Philosophical Issues

James T. Clemons

Suicide The Philosophical Issues:

Ethical Issues in Suicide M. Pabst Battin, 1995 This book provides a broad systematic and comprehensive exploration of both historical and contemporary argumentation concerning suicide It probes the underlying ethical religious and philosophical issues about self caused death and shows how they are crucial in the current debate Suicide Michael Cholbi, 2011-08-26 Suicide was selected as a Choice Outstanding Academic Title for 2012 Suicide The Philosophical Dimensions is a provocative and comprehensive investigation of the main philosophical issues surrounding suicide Readers will encounter seminal arguments concerning the nature of suicide and its moral permissibility the duty to die the rationality of suicide and the ethics of suicide intervention Intended both for students and for seasoned scholars this book sheds much needed philosophical light on one of the most puzzling and enigmatic human behaviors Suicide, the Philosophical Issues M. Pabst Battin, David J. Mayo, 1980-01-01 The Oxford Handbook of the Philosophy of Suicide Michael Cholbi, Professor and Personal Chair in Philosophy Michael Cholbi, Paolo Stellino, 2026-01-06 Written by thirty five leading scholars The Oxford Handbook of the Philosophy of Suicide provides a fresh and compelling analysis of past and contemporary trends in the field Divided into three parts it starts with a critical overview of the most important historical philosophical approaches to suicide throughout the world and goes on to discuss the nature morality and rationality of suicide The final section covers philosophical issues related to the practice of suicide addressing the ethics of suicide prevention and intervention new suicide technologies suicide and mental illness suicide and media ethics and suicide and gender Comprehensive Textbook of Suicidology Alan Lee Berman, Morton M. Silverman, Bruce Michael Bongar, 2000-08-10 Multidisciplinary and comprehensive in scope this volume serves as an authoritative overview of scientific knowledge about suicide and its prevention providing a foundation in theory research and clinical applications Issues relevant to clinical case management are highlighted and various treatment modalities are discussed in light of the latest research findings Philosophical Issues and Problems Pearson Learning Solutions, 2000-07 Breaking the Thread of Life Robert Barry, 2017-07-28 Suicide and how civilized people should respond to it is an increasingly controversial topic in modern society In Holland suicide is the third leading cause of death of people between the ages of fifteen and forty In the United States it is the second leading cause of death among older teenagers Laws prohibiting assisted suicide are being directly and boldly confronted by activists in the United States most notably Jack Kevorkian Meanwhile the American Civil Liberties Union has publicly declared suicide a fundamental human right that should be protected under the Constitution The Hemlock Society has introduced referenda in California Washington and Oregon to legalize suicide and assisted suicide The most vocal opposition to these initiatives has come from the Roman Catholic church Breaking the Thread of Life marshalls philosophical moral medical historical and theological arguments in support of the Roman Catholic position against suicide In a comprehensive study of the history of suicide Barry shows that Christian civilization was one of only a few early societies that was able to bring suicide under control He counters claims that Catholicism and the Bible endorse rational suicide Barry also analyzes arguments in support of the rationality of suicide and illuminates their biases inadequacies and dangers Barry presents the rationale for the Roman Catholic church's strong extensive and articulate opposition to efforts to gain legal and social endorsement of suicide and assisted suicide His book represents the most complete study of the classical Roman Catholic view of rational suicide to date and it will be of significant interest to philosophers theologians physicians and lawyers

Philosophical Issues James Rachels, Frank A. Tillman, 1972 Suicide David Lester Ph.D., James R. Rogers, 2013-10-29 Intended for the general reader this masterful compilation probes the psychology of suicide revealing the latest research and spotlighting global efforts to reduce the million suicide deaths each year Exceeding previously available studies in both scope and depth the two volume Suicide A Global Issue explores and explains both why suicides and suicide attempts occur and what can be done to prevent them The first volume Understanding considers factors that may play into the choice to take one's life discussing forces as varied as culture psychology religion and biology The second volume Prevention covers steps that can be taken to prevent suicide whether individually or by society as a whole Articles by widely respected experts consider questions such as why people kill themselves why some countries have extremely high suicide rates and whether the treatment of suicidal individuals actually prevents them from taking their lives Each chapter presents incidents research and actions from nations around the globe as well as from the United States

Ending Life Margaret Pabst Battin, 2005-05-05 Margaret Pabst Battin has established a reputation as one of the top philosophers working in bioethics today This work is a sequel to Battin's 1994 volume The Least Worst Death The last ten years have seen fast moving developments in end of life issues from the legalization of physician assisted suicide in Oregon and the Netherlands to furor over proposed restrictions of scheduled drugs used for causing death and the development of NuTech methods of assistance in dying Battin's new collection covers a remarkably wide range of end of life topics including suicide prevention AIDS suicide bombing serpent handling and other religious practices that pose a risk of death genetic prognostication suicide in old age global justice and the duty to die and suicide physician assisted suicide and euthanasia in both American and international contexts As with the earlier volume these new essays are theoretically adroit but draw richly from historical sources fictional techniques and ample factual material

The Philosopher's Index, 2009 Vols for 1969 include a section of abstracts

What We Know About Suicidal Behavior and How to Treat It Stanley Lesse, 1988 Exploring the Philosophy of Death and Dying Travis Timmerman, Michael Cholbi, 2020-12-30 Exploring the Philosophy of Death and Dying Classical and Contemporary Perspectives is the first book to offer students the full breadth of philosophical issues that are raised by the end of life Included are many of the essential voices that have contributed to the philosophy of death and dying throughout history and in contemporary research The 38 chapters in its nine sections contain classic texts by authors such as Epicurus Hume Nietzsche and Schopenhauer and new short argumentative essays specially commissioned for this volume by world leading contemporary experts Exploring the Philosophy of Death and Dying introduces students to both theoretical issues whether we can survive death whether death is truly bad for us whether immortality would be desirable etc and urgent practical issues the ethics of suicide the value of grief the appropriate medical criteria for declaring death etc raised by human mortality enabling instructors to adapt it to a wide array of institutions and student audiences As a pedagogical benefit PowerPoints discussion questions and test questions for each chapter are included as online ancillary materials

Perspectives on Suicide James T. Clemons,1990 A Handbook for the Caregiver on Suicide Prevention Duncan Martin,1987 Bioethics Reporter ,1984 Suicide in Henry James's Fiction Mary J. Joseph,1994

This book is a detailed analysis of self willed death physical as well as symbolic in Henry James s fiction in the light of penetrating studies of death in general and suicide in particular by such notable figures as Emile Durkheim Edwin Schneidman A Alvarez and Philippe Aries The study sheds light on the sociology and the psychology of self destruction during a time when suicide was prominent in the fictional and real worlds of creative writers It also shows that in the delineation of his suicidal characters James reflects attitudes toward self destruction prevalent in his time Autobiography cultural and social displacement and failed quests further lend cohesiveness to a private mythology which establishes Henry James as a myth maker

Ethical Issues in Death and Dying Tom L. Beauchamp,Robert M. Veatch,1996 This anthology of major classical and contemporary views on key ethical aspects of death and dying is the only philosophically sophisticated interdisciplinary and up to date introduction to the subject available Pairs pro and con arguments to give a balanced perspective Covers a range of topics that reflect the latest developments at the frontier of the field Provides clearly and carefully written section introductions that define the issues to be discussed Introduces each selection with a brief editorial essay Features up to date and solid analyses of all issues Offers an excellent introduction to ethical theory

Contemporary Moral Issues Lawrence M. Hinman,1996 An anthology which provides a selection of readings on 11 contemporary social issues Each set of readings is accompanied by an introduction a bibliographical essay and pre reading and discussion questions

The Death Debate Margaret Pabst Battin,M. Pabst Battin,1996 The Death Debate focuses on the central philosophical question What role may the individual play in his or her own death Battin considers the arguments for and against suicide throughout history while offering a culturally diverse perspective She takes both a short range and a long range view of the issues including a chapter length treatment of physician assisted suicide
