

A photograph of a man with light brown hair, seen from the side and back, playing an acoustic guitar on a sandy beach. He is wearing a dark t-shirt. The background shows a blurred view of a beach with many small, colorful pebbles and a distant, warm-toned structure that looks like a beach hut or a small building at sunset. The overall atmosphere is relaxed and suggests a vacation or a casual evening.

Summertime Blues:

Song Interpretation in 21st-Century Pop Music Ralf von Appen, André Doehring, Allan F. Moore, 2016-03-03 Existing books on the analysis of popular music focus on theory and methodology and normally discuss parts of songs briefly as examples. The impression often given is that songs are being chosen simply to illuminate and exemplify a theoretical position. In this book the opposite is true: songs take centre stage and are given priority. The authors analyse and interpret them intensively from a variety of theoretical positions that illuminate the song. Thus methods and theories have to prove their use value in the face of a heterogeneous contemporary repertoire. The book brings together researchers from very different cultural backgrounds and encourages them to compare their different hearings and to discuss the ways in which they make sense of specific songs. All songs analysed are from the new millennium, most of them not older than three years. Because the most widely popular styles are too often ignored by academics this book aims to shed light on how million sellers work musically. Therefore it encompasses a broad palette highlighting mainstream pop (Lady Gaga, Ke$ha, Lucenzo, Amy McDonald) but also accounting for critically acclaimed indie styles (Fleet Foxes, Death Cab for Cutie, PJ Harvey, R.E.M., Destiny's Child, Janelle Monae). Popular hard rock (Kings of Leon, Rammstein) and current electronic music (André 3000, Björk). By concentrating on 13 well-known songs this book offers some model analyses that can very easily be studied at home or used in seminars and classrooms for students of popular music at all academic levels.

100 Greatest Cover Versions Robert Webb, 2013-07-15 Which Blondie Top Five was originally a flop for a West Coast power pop band. Who wrote Alice Cooper's 1973 hit Hello Hurray and which folk singer first recorded it? Who launched their career with a tear and a cover of a little known Prince song? Where was Joe Cocker sitting when he came up with the idea of covering With a Little Help from my Friends? Everybody likes a good song and a good story. The 100 Greatest Cover Versions traces the histories of some of the great songs you may know only as second hand recordings and explores some unusual and creative takes on a few of pop's well known tracks. Based on the Independent's popular long running Story of the Song column this collection features previously unpublished pieces alongside fully expanded updated stories. Robert Webb details the background to each song, how it was written, who first recorded it and how it came to be covered and explains how in some cases the cover version has become more popular than the original. Artists range from Patti Smith to the Happy Mondays, David Bowie to Florence the Machine and Stevie Wonder to Robert Wyatt. The book also includes additional further listening suggestions and a bonus track. Whether you download, rip from CD or stream your music the Ultimate Playlist series provides the perfect accompaniment to your personal compilation. The series aims to guide listeners through large and often bewildering back catalogues of the major artists as well as key genres and styles in popular music. If you love music and you enjoy knowing more about the history behind some of pop's greatest songs then you will love this book.
