

Summons

*Keep me from going to sleep too soon
Or if I go to sleep too soon
Come wake me up. Come any hour
Of night. Come whistling up the road.
Stomp on the porch. Bang on the door.
Make me get out of bed and come
And let you in and light a light.
Tell me the northern lights are on
And make me look. Or tell me clouds
Are doing something to the moon
They never did before, and show me.
See that I see. Talk to me till
I'm half as wide awake as you
And start to dress wondering why
I ever went to bed at all.
Tell me the walking is superb.
Not only tell me but persuade me.
You know I'm not too hard persuaded.*

The Greek Poetry of Summons and Invitation Francis Cairns,2024-09-23 The Greek Poetry of Summons and Invitation assembles and studies for the first time the numerous poetic invitations and summonses of Archaic Classical and Hellenistic Greece These poems and passages come from epic lyric dramatic epigrammatic and epigraphic sources Most of them are by celebrated Greek poets Homer Sappho Alcaeus Aeschylus Sophocles Euripides Aristophanes Theocritus Callimachus Apollonius among others Analysis of this poetic corpus associates it with the kletikon an ancient rhetorical genre of content and reveals everywhere in it the commonplaces of that genre thus allowing new sub types of the kletikon to be discovered and the development of the genre over the centuries to be charted When individual invitations and summonses are viewed against this generic background their originality and merits emerge along with their poets unique voices Each summons and invitation is presented translated discussed in detail and when part of a longer work linked to its context This volume is directed to scholars and students of Classics scholars of the Latin equivalent genre the vocatio which persisted into the Renaissance can also find in it an intellectual model Summons Richard S. a site of cultural triumph over exile The eight essays in this collection explore how tensions between pride in southern culture and anxiety over the alien qualities of the southern frontier were behind many of the distinctive features of medieval Chinese literature They examine how prominent writers from this period depicted themselves and the South in poetic form through attitudes that included patriotic attachment and bitter exile By the Tang dynasty poetic symbols and clichés about the exotic South had become well established though many writers were still able to use these in innovative ways Southern Identity and Southern Estrangement in Medieval Chinese Poetry is the first work in English to examine the cultural south in classical Chinese poetry The book incorporates original research on key poets such as Lu Ji Jiang Yan Wang Bo and Li Bai It also offers a broad survey of cultural and historical trends during the medieval period as depicted in poetry The book will be of interest to students of Chinese literature and cultural history Ping Wang is assistant professor of Chinese at University of Washington Seattle Nicholas Morrow Williams is research assistant professor at the Mr Simon Suen and Mrs Mary Suen Sino Humanitas Institute Hong Kong Baptist University A long overdue appreciation of the South as a center for the production of medieval Chinese literature as well as a focal point of Chinese cultural and intellectual reflection and identity this collection of essays by a stellar roster of leading scholars offers an immensely rich contribution to the study of classical Chinese poetry Martin Kern Greg 84 and Joanna P13 Zeluck Professor in Asian Studies Princeton University This book presents a systematic study of how the symbol of the southland was reinvented in medieval Chinese literature taking readers on a cultural and geographic journey to survey the continuous rewriting of the South and its identity Yu Yu Cheng Distinguished Professor of Chinese Literature National Taiwan University The Summons, 1764 Summons Richard S. Hermeneutics and Medieval Culture Patrick J. Gallacher, Helen Damico, 1989-01-01 This study explores the art of interpretation in works of history art music and literature from the medieval period The authors demonstrate that the search for meaning was a primary concern of medieval authors and that the history of medieval thought from Augustine to Aquinas and Ockham illustrates the dialectic of question and answer that is the foundation of hermeneutics This study is the first to offer a diversity of hermeneutic approaches and themes in the context of medieval works The study s interdisciplinary approach to the medieval works considered invites analysis from scholars and critics in all areas of medieval studies The breadth of scope in addressing the art of interpretation in the various disciplines also provides a valuable general introduction to medieval culture     Academy, with which are Incorporated Literature and the English Review ,1885
