Sunrise Vows:

Wordsworth's Classical Undersong Richard Clancey, 2016-06-01 Wordsworth's classical education presents an amazing paradox. Gifted teachers trained him in the full rigours of classical Latin and Greek. But Wordsworth's schoolmasters were enlightened, liberal and advanced. They were committed to the Classics and to modern literature. In their enthusiasm they shared their volumes of contemporary poetry with Wordsworth. His was a holistic literary education. Wordsworth developed a profound love for the Classics and thus an enlightened zeal for a new poetry, a poetry capable of being compared with and even daring to compete with the Classical texts he so dearly loved. Richard Clancey's meticulously researched study presents new biographical information on Wordsworth's classical education and new facts about the education of his teachers.

The Oxford History of Hinduism: Hindu Law Patrick Olivelle, Donald R. Davis, 2017-12-08 Through pointed studies of important aspects and topics of dharma in Dharmastra, this comprehensive collection shows that the history of Hinduism cannot be written without the history of Hindu law. Part One provides a concise overview of the literary genres in which Dharmasastra was written with attention to chronology and historical developments. This study divides the tradition into its two major historical periods: the origins and formation of the classical texts and the later genres of commentary and digest in order to provide a thorough but manageable overview of the textual bases of the tradition. Part Two presents descriptive and historical studies of all the major substantive topics of Dharmasastra. Each chapter offers readers with the latest knowledge of the debates, transformations and fluctuating importance of each topic. Indirectly, readers will also gain insight into the ethos or worldview of religious law in Hinduism, enabling them to get a feel for how dharma authors thought and why. Part Three contains brief studies of the impact and reception of Dharmasastra in other South Asian cultural and textual traditions. Finally, Part Four draws inspiration from critical terms in contemporary legal and religious studies to analyze Dharmasastra texts. Contributors offer interpretive views of Dharmasastra that start from hermeneutic and social concerns today.

Sun of Devotion, Stream of Blessings Lama Zopa Rinpoche, 2016-08-15 The key to happiness is the mind. With the mind we can switch our life to suffering or we can switch it to happiness just as we change television channels choosing to watch programs about fighting and war or peaceful things like the nature programs people seem to enjoy. Experiencing happiness or suffering depends entirely on what we do with our mind. Lama Zopa Rinpoche in Sun of Devotion, Stream of Blessings is the record of a remarkable series of powerful and clear Dharma teachings given by Kyabje Lama Zopa Rinpoche in 2014 to students at Leeds and London in the United Kingdom. Lama Yeshe Wisdom Archive's editor Gordon McDougall was present throughout these teachings and has now skillfully edited them into written form that retains the flavor of a great master giving precise instructions to the students sitting before him. In Sun of Devotion, Stream of Blessings, Rinpoche explains how to take care of our minds so that our happiness is in our own hands, gives profound teachings on the Buddhist philosophy of emptiness, discusses the need for ethics and a solid refuge, shows us how to cut the root of samsara explores why practicing certain tantras is important and especially emphasizes how the guru is the most powerful object of our Dharma practice Gordon has presented the subjects taught by Rinpoche in the order in which they were given beginning with a deep commentary on the meaning of sang gy the Tibetan term usually translated as buddha and retaining the powerful method by which Rinpoche would repeatedly reinforce and expand upon earlier topics Rinpoche also spends much time discussing the great qualities of Khadro la Rangjung Neljorma Khadro Namsel Drolma the incredible being who has become so important to Tibetan Buddhism FPMT and the world Etelka's Vow Dorothea Gerard,1892
