Reading for Pleasure Kenny Pieper, 2016-12-01 In Reading for Pleasure Kenny Pieper has gathered a range of tried and tested strategies to get kids reading and enjoying it We hear too often that kids don't read any more Kenny thinks it should be every teacher's mission to prove this isn't true In a squeezed curriculum it can be tempting to accept pupils lack of reading and make excuses that there is not enough time to give to the luxury of personal reading Teachers do this at our peril Reading is the essential building block of further literacy development as well as a skill hobby and habit that we can take with us forever Kenny Pieper takes the act of reading for granted as many but sadly not all adults do You're reading this right now However this isn't the case for everyone Kenny teaches kids whose lives are terrifying obstacle courses of reading related problems They know they struggle with reading so they try to avoid reading at all costs They leave school not merely unaffected by this strange reading thing but saddled with a great deal of emotional baggage about being an outsider even more entrenched in a belief that reading is for others more intelligent than them Then there are the children who can read perfectly well but chose not to unconvinced of the importance of reading in their lives What difference does it make to them We have to answer that question in school We have a duty to put an end to illiteracy and aliteracy Kids need reading role models and as a teacher that role model is you You may be the only adult who that reluctant reader will ever see reading Teachers are critical in giving all children the gift of being able to read well and to value reading Topics covered include the author's personal reading journey how reading enabled him to become the first person in his family to go to university and convinced him that fostering a love of reading is his moral duty as an educator illiteracy and aliteracy reluctant readers book reviews prioritising personal reading by devoting ten minutes each lesson to it habitual reading the reading environment interest inventories technology e readers Accelerated Reader programmes recommended reading building a class library bookmarks book tweets book speed dating libraries librarians literacy and class inequality parental involvement podcasting reading records reading dialogue journals the rights of the reader reading aloud silent reading and literacy and gender amongst others The benefits we can all reap when kids become confident readers who read for pleasure are obvious Discover strategies which will get kids talking about books get them thinking about books get them reading books encourage independent reading develop literacy skills and establish a classroom culture where reading is expected and celebrated Suitable for primary and secondary teachers leaders and SENCOs or just anyone with an interest in or responsibility for getting kids to read      Strategic Reading Groups Jennifer Berne, Sophie C. Degener, 2012-03-02 Strategic grouping can transform reading instruction in the middle grades from a hit or miss learning experience to a targeted responsive one This book features a practical and field tested model for small group differentiated reading instruction in Grades 4-8 Jennifer Berne and Sophie C Degener offer a clear detailed discussion of how to position this instruction inside middle school language arts or reading classrooms and simple effective strategies for classroom management groupings and assessment The authors explain how to 1 balance brief strategic reading lessons with whole class work 2 Structure and guide reading groups consistently 3 Assess students before and during reading groups and 4 Cue students and gauge understanding as they read Differentiating instruction is not the flavor of the month in education rather it is the essential orientation for maximizing student success Strategic Reading Groups gives teachers the tools they need to differentiate reading instruction in the critical middle years as students begin to read more complex content filled narrative and informative texts Foreword by Donna Ogle      How to Study the Bible Samuel Ridout, 2015-04-20

Preliminary Remarks To many a handbook on such a subject may seem needless and an intrusion into what must ever be left to the individual alone as guided by the Spirit of God Others already diligent workers in this field will find perhaps little to help but it is hoped that large numbers of the Lord's people who have a longing to become better acquainted with the contents of His word may find useful suggestions in the following pages A few preliminary remarks may not be amiss First No method of Bible study however useful in itself and suggestive can do away with the absolute necessity for repentance and new birth The natural mind is alienated from the life of God and no amount of education even in the word of truth itself can change the character of that which is enmity against God The Sunday school teacher must never forget this as he faces a class of bright intelligent young people week by week If they have not been brought to repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ the great work has not even been begun which is to form the foundation of their whole life Well would it be for all who are seeking to make plain the word of God to remember this and with all the enthusiasm that they bring to the opening up of this wonderful storehouse of divine riches to agonize in prayer for the conversion of those who in the providence of God have been committed to them The same of course applies to all who come to the Scriptures without having a knowledge of God in the forgiveness of their sins While we can never refuse such any help which we may be able to give them let us ever remember that one thing is needful It is to be feared that this is overlooked in much of the activity in Bible study of the day and without doubt the rise and growth of the higher criticism may largely be due to the handling of the Scriptures by unconverted men in a coldly intellectual manner No doubt much of the mixture in established churches is due to the indiscriminate participation by converted and unconverted alike in truths which can only really be spiritually learned

Second Similarly no method of Bible study even for the children of God can be substituted for the inestimable blessedness and guidance of the Holy Spirit in the believer He will guide you into all truth is a promise not only for the apostles a pledge of infallible inspiration for whatever God had to give to His Church in the way of a written Word through them but in a more general sense the Spirit is an enlightener of the minds of the saints leading them into that which is needed for their upbuilding on their most holy faith The most complete and logical methods of Bible study pursued in the most diligent manner with approved helps of every variety are all worthless apart from the special and controlling guidance of Him who delights to take of the things of Christ and to show them unto us How indispensably precious a privilege it is to have the Author of the perfect and infinite word of God present with us not merely to point out its manifold beauties and perfections and to give us the key to its arrangement and lead us on step by step in a knowledge of the vast plan contained in it but to have this divine Person dwelling in us our hearts through grace capable of appreciating what He makes known and of assimilating the truths of those deep things which the Spirit searcheth and of carrying them out in obedient lives Here as in all else the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man to profit withal and we have received not the spirit of the world but the Spirit which is of God that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God We would pause here and lay down our pen if we thought that one word of what follows would divert the mind of the child of God from the glorious fact of the Spirit's presence and dwelling in him competent to lead direct correct and control through an understanding of that Word which He himself has inspired Let us at the very outset of what may be said remember this give Him room for the exercise of that activity of grace in which He so delights The communion of the Holy Ghost is that fellowship with the Father and His Son which He produces a fellowship one with another too which is founded upon the assimilation of the word of God for it would be the greatest mistake to put the Spirit's enlightenment in opposition to the written Word The Scriptures are indeed the instrument of the Holy Spirit All the truth that He unfolds is revealed truth already recorded in the word of God We may be sure that if ever any are tempted to think of receiving revelations from the Spirit apart from the Scriptures they are in grave peril We find in the very types given of the Spirit and His work that His ministry is in and through the word of God both vivifying and cleansing the heart Thus Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit he cannot enter into the kingdom of God shows that the water of the Word see Eph 5 26 is the instrument used by the Spirit of God Being born again not of corruptible seed but of incorruptible by the word of God which liveth and abideth forever Thus it is by the word of God ministered to the soul by the Spirit of God that man is born anew It is this fact which encourages us to go on instructing children and others in the word of God It might be said that until a person is converted he cannot rightly understand Scripture and therefore it were needless to trouble ourselves to impart it to them But we never know when the Spirit of God may work and indeed the very exercise on our part in imparting the knowledge of the word of God to others should encourage us to believe that the Spirit of truth is already at work in their hearts The teaching of the Bible to unconverted children has been likened to laying the paper and wood all ready for kindling a fire There is no fire in the paper or the wood and yet they are necessary so a knowledge of Scripture in some measure at least either by hearing the gospel or reading it is necessary for the conversion of souls Third In line with what has already been said it is well to remember that all our study of the Bible must be in a reverent spirit in which all self sufficiency and dependence upon carnal wisdom are refused and we realize that if we are to know anything aright it must be from God alone The word of God and prayer are put together as the sanctifying power in the enjoyment of all the natural gifts of God 1 Tim 4 5 Thus the Scripture will always if rightly apprehended reveal our ignorance and shortcomings to us leading us to a spirit of prayer and in like manner our very ignorance of God s word will turn us to Him who is so ready to fulfil His word If any of you lack wisdom let him ask of God that giveth to all men liberally and upbraideth not and it shall be given him James 1 5 This however must suffice here Later on in our little book we may point out the place of prayer in connection with the study of the Bible We turn now to the immediate subject
