Suicide And Bereavement:

Grief After Suicide John R. Jordan, John L. McIntosh, 2011-01-19 A suicide leaves behind more victims than just the individual And yet there are very few professional resources that provide the necessary background research and tools to effectively work with the survivors This edited volume addresses the need for an up to date professionally oriented summary of the clinical and research literature on the impact of suicide bereavement on survivors Grief After Suicide: A Health Perspective on Needs, Effective Help, and Personal Growth Karl Andriessen, Dolores Angela Castelli Dransart, Karolina Krysinska, 2021-01-05 Postvention in Action Karl Andriessen, Karolina Krysinska, Onja Grad, 2019-12-09 A unique and comprehensive handbook presenting the state of the art in suicide bereavement support Suicide is not merely the act of an individual it always has an effect on others and can even increase the risk of suicide in the bereaved The International Association for Suicide Prevention the World Health Organisation and others have recognized postvention as an important strategy for suicide prevention This unique and comprehensive handbook authored by nearly 100 international experts including researchers clinicians support group facilitators and survivors presents the state of the art in suicide bereavement support The first part examines the key concepts and the processes that the bereaved experience and illustrates them with illuminating clinical vignettes The second and third parts look in detail at suicide bereavement support in all the relevant settings including general practices the workplace online and many others as well as in specific groups such as health care workers In the concluding section the support provided for those bereaved by suicide in no less than 23 countries is explored in detail showing that postvention is becoming a worldwide strategy for suicide prevention These chapters provide useful lessons and inspiration for extending and improving postvention in new and existing areas This unique handbook is thus essential reading for anyone involved in suicide prevention or postvention research and practice Losing a Parent to Suicide Marty Loy, Amy Boelk, 2013-09-05 The suicide of a parent has life long consequences few more traumatic scenarios exist and counselors often struggle for ways to help clients deal with its effects Few understand the pain and life altering effects of these tragedies better than children who have experienced the suicide of a parent Despite this there are few texts that incorporate and evaluate the first person accounts of grief following a suicide while advancing a method for helping Losing a Parent to Suicide analyzes stories of parent suicides and explores the grief and coping processes that follow discovering the strategies methods and modes of therapy that have empowered grieving individuals and helped them rebuild their lives After the Suicide Einar Plyhn, Gudrun Dieserud, Kari Dyregrov, 2011-10-15 This accessible book provides complete guidance for those working with the suicide bereaved It addresses why the suicide happened how suicide survivors commonly react and cope and where support can be found Drawing on the testimonies of suicide survivors and research it will help the bereaved move forwards on their path from grief to recovery A Special Scar Alison Wertheimer, 2001 Designed to appeal to a wide general as well as a professional readership this work looks at the stigma surrounding suicide and offers practical help for survivors relatives and friends of people who have taken their own life Preventing suicide World Health Organization,2025-10-24 This resource was written to support persons who seek to initiate a support group for suicide loss survivors Suicide bereavement support groups offer a wide range of benefits that can help individuals to navigate the difficult time following a loss First and foremost a support group provides a chance to break the silence and reduce the stigma surrounding suicide by creating a space where individuals can openly discuss their grief It also serves as a source of information about suicide and bereavement It is important to note that support groups are not a replacement for professional help and that support groups may not be for everyone Suicide Pauline Cahillane,2019-08-25 There is nothing more tragic than losing a loved one to suicide This book explores the tormenting questions that bereaved families struggle with in the aftermath of suicide What could I have done to stop it Why didn t I see the signs How can I live without my loved one Will I ever feel normal again WHY did they choose to die Suicide still remains a mystery in the twenty first century Families dealing with suicide grief struggle to cope with the prospect that their questions will go unanswered This book contains a compilation of real life experiences expressed in short stories To protect the privacy of individuals the author uses a set of projected themes to highlight the impact of suicide grief on bereaved families The answers in this book will reflect the expertise of a counsellor with over ten years experience in suicide bereavement While there are no final resolutions there are insights and stories that will ease the burden of uncertainty for those left behind to pick up the pieces Pauline Cahillane is a Counsellor Psychotherapist and has specialised in the field of Suicide Bereavement Counselling for the last ten years She has worked for a number of private and non profit organisations as well as her own private practice Pauline is considered an expert in her field due to her experience working with hundreds of individuals and families in the aftermath of suicide Her experience working with families inspired her to write this book Pauline s hope is that anyone who has lost a loved one to suicide might get some answers here Handbook of Death and Dying Clifton D. Bryant,2003-10 Dying is a social as well as physiological phenomenon Each society characterizes and consequently treats death and dying in its own individual ways that differ markedly These particular patterns of death and dying engender modal cultural responses and such institutionalized behavior has familiar economical educational religious and political implications The Handbook of Death and Dying takes stock of the vast literature in the field of thanatology arranging and synthesizing what has been an unwieldy body of knowledge into a concise yet comprehensive reference work This two volume handbook will provide direction and momentum to the study of death related behavior for many years to come Key Features More than 100 contributors representing authoritative expertise in a diverse array of disciplines Anthropology Family Studies History Law Medicine Mortuary Science Philosophy Psychology Social work Sociology Theology A distinguished editorial board of leading scholars and researchers in the field More than 100 definitive essays covering almost every dimension of death related behavior Comprehensive and inclusive exploring concepts and social patterns within the larger topical concern Journal article length essays that address topics with appropriate detail Multidisciplinary and cross cultural coverage      The Understanding Your Suicide Grief Journal Alan Wolfelt, Dr Alan D Wolfelt, PhD, 2009-08 With ample space to unburden the heart and the soul this companion workbook helps grievers explore the 10 essential touchstones for finding hope and healing The exercises throughout the journal recall the content of the book and ask corresponding questions about the survivor's unique grief journey      Surviving Suicide Bereavement Brendan McManus SJ, 2017-10-01 Brendan McManus SJ lost his brother Donal to suicide in 2005 and has written and spoken extensively about his grief journey He published an article Surviving Suicide in The Furrow journal and a book Redemption Road about walking the Camino in honor of his deceased brother Here some ten years later he offers advice on the complex suicide grief process and what he has found to be helpful for survival adaptation and thriving      Suicide and Bereavement Bruce L. Danto, Austin H. Kutscher, Lillian G. Kutscher, 1977      The Routledge International Handbook of Drug-Related Death Bereavement Margaret Stroebe, Kari Dyregrov, Kristine Berg Titlestad, 2024-03-21 This handbook provides a comprehensive overview of drug related death bereavement to increase understanding and help direct scientific research with contributions from across the globe It is the first comprehensive cross cultural multidisciplinary review of research on drug related death DRD bereavement Chapters cover the impact of DRD at individual family cultural and societal levels and topics include working with and social support for families following drug related loss understanding grief processes of individuals drug policy and the importance of cultural contexts The book also elaborates on methodological issues when researching DRD This handbook will increase understanding of DRD bereavement and contribute to support for DRD bereaved persons and those who care for them professionally and personally It is essential reading for professionals and academics in the field as well as anyone affected by DRD      Suicide Bereavement and Postvention Karl Andriessen, Karolina Kryszynska, Yossi Levi-Belz, 2023-06-28 Experiencing the suicide of a close person is often a major life event which increases the risk of maladaptive grief reactions social physical and mental health problems and suicidal behavior in the bereaved individuals However people bereaved by suicide may also experience long term positive outcomes regarding personal or post traumatic growth The field of suicide bereavement research is evolving rapidly Hence this reprint is particularly focused the advance knowledge on bereavement and postvention In this reprint you can find papers that enhance our understanding of grief after suicide and how to help those who are bereaved including studies on suicide grief in specific populations and studies on interventions and support offered to the bereaved or their social environment in addition studies based on novel methods and studies that contribute to the development of theory or models We believe that this reprint can add important knowledge on our journey to help suicide loss survivors in their continued struggle with the loss on their loved ones to suicide      Encyclopedia of Death & Human Experience Clifton D. Bryant, Dennis L. Peck, 2009-07-15 This two volume Encyclopdia through multidisciplinary and international contributions and perspectives organizes defines and clarifies more than 300 death related concepts      Information Booklet for People Bereaved by Suicide

Lynette Burbidge, South Australian Government - Commissioner for Victims' Rights, 2011      SEEKING HOPE Michelle Linn-Gust, 2011 Surviving suicide loss is often about telling the story Each person who dies by suicide leaves behind a life shared with loved ones and a series of events that led to the suicide Seeking Hope Stories of the Suicide Bereaved features the stories of fourteen people in their own words of the losses that have forever changed their lives These stories describe the endurance of traveling through grief In addition the proceeds from the book benefit a fund for suicide bereavement research at the American Association of Suicidology The goal is that the stories shared here will help others who also must travel the same journey seeking hope after a devastating loss      Grieving a Suicide Albert Y. Hsu, 2017-07-04 Albert Y Hsu wrestles with emotional and spiritual questions surrounding suicide ultimately pointing survivors to the God who offers comfort in our grief and hope for the future This revised edition now includes a discussion guide for suicide survivor groups      Oxford Textbook of Suicidology and Suicide Prevention Danuta Wasserman, 2021 Part of the authoritative Oxford Textbooks in Psychiatry series the new edition of the Oxford Textbook of Suicidology and Suicide Prevention remains a key text in the field of suicidology fully updated with new chapters devoted to major psychiatric disorders and their relation to suicide      After Suicide Loss Bob Baugher, Jack Jordan, 2002-01-01 If you have experienced the death of a loved one from suicide this book is for you With contributions of many people who have been through the experience and two Psychologists who have helped hundreds of people bereaved by suicide this book takes the reader through the first few days weeks months and years
