Something In The Air Richard Hernaman Allen,2015-11-20 Briefly seconded to a Purchase Tax office in London s East End Nick Storey comes across evidence of a criminal organisation which includes loan sharking extortionate insurance and huge rent increases on properties previously owned by West Docklands Council but offloaded to a dubious property company in suspicious circumstances Believing the local police and press to be bought off Rosemary and he track down the councillors involved in the shady deal But when in the course of his day job Nick meets a lawyer who is plainly acutely nervous at seeing him he realises he has a way to get the key to what has been going on However having to meet a gangster in an East End park and Rosemary requiring a weapon to keep them safe suggests sorting things out becomes far from straightforward Something in the air is the seventh book published in a series of detective stories set in Customs Excise by Richard

Hernaman Allen a former Commissioner     Climate and Society in Europe Christian Pfister,Heinz Wanner,2021-09-06 A richly illustrated book on the history of climate change in Europe Two perspectives one unique book two leading experts a historian and a climatologist co author a new standard work on climate history An overview of the connection between climatic and social developments over the last 1000 years For the first time a historian and a climatologist with knowledge of climate history have worked closely together to create a unique book combining climate reconstructions based on documented data in their human historical context with temporally highly resolved analyses of climate and glaciers Here we can clearly see how changes in climate affected the environment and people of Europe over many centuries with important lessons for the future A wonderfully engaging and well documented account by two of Europe s leading climate scientists Prof Dr Raymond Bradley Director Climate System Research Center University of Massachusetts Amherst USA This unique book provides new fascinating insights into the interaction of past climate and society in Europe It can be highly recommended to climatologists historians and geoscientists but also to students and the broad public Prof Dr Rudolf Br zdil Department of Geography Masaryk University Brno Czech Republic The authors offer a truly interdisciplinary combination of history and science in order to explore the complex relationships of climate and society over the past millennium They demonstrate convincingly that climate change is nothing new while at the same time revealing the character of the unprecedented climatic epoch mankind now faces Prof Dr Jan de Vries Professor Emeritus of History and Economics University of California Berkeley USA Christian Pfister is Professor Emeritus of Economic Social and Environmental History at the University of Bern Switzerland He was founding president of the European Society for Environmental History ESEH Heinz Wanner is Professor Emeritus of Geography and Climatology He was co chair of the international Past Global Changes PAGES project and a member of the UN Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change IPCC Both scientists work at the renowned Oeschger Centre for Climate Change Research at the University of Bern     After Many a Summer Aldous Huxley,2015-09-03 Jo Stoyte is afraid of death But Stoyte is also a millionaire and so he pours his riches into scientific research desperate to find the secret of immortality This ruthless quest will enmesh everyone around him in a web of greed seduction murder and debasement Written while he was living in California this is Huxley s response to Hollywood s superficiality and obsession with youth a powerful cautionary tale which employs all his customary wit and merciless insight

Europa Sun Issue 2 Carolyn Emerick,Various Authors,2017-12-28 The second issue of Europa Sun has landed with a bang While we were very proud of our debut we dare say that Issue 2 might have even superseded it This issue bursts with impassioned love for European ethnic heritage and makes no bones about it Our writers share their love of the history and culture of their heritage in cogent and illuminating ways We explore history both ancient and more recent Our authors elucidate on issues we face as a culture today while placing it in historical context We discuss faith from multiple perspectives as to how it pertains to our cultural identity This issue includes both Christian and pagan writers including one writer who explains why as a Christian he gets so much value from European native mythos Another writer explains how Christianity is intertwined with ethnic nationalism for Eastern Europeans The editor discusses the unbroken survival of European Native Faith while yet another contributor discusses the shared history and need to come together between Christians and European pagans as we face a common enemy who threatens the culture we both love But this issue is not overpowered by religious discussion We ve got explorers warriors kings and lost tribes In fact it wasn t intentional but this issue is jam packed with masculine energy While this was not the editor s planned intention she is not sorry for its happenstance In a world where Marxist distortion pervades our media and education today and perverts the mainstream view of history Europa Sun is more than happy to stand up for white Western men and boldly assert that we have a history to be PROUD of Hugh Johnson's Pocket Wine Book 2012 Hugh Johnson,2011-08-01 Hugh Johnson s Pocket Wine Book is the ultimate compact guide Now in its 35th edition it is the UK s number one wine book appealing to wine lovers and professionals alike It is the key reference for enthusiasts investors and collectors and this year s edition boasts up to date news on more than 6 000 wines growers and regions plus invaluable vintage information from experts around the world A new colour supplement focuses on the array of wines from the South of France while a new section offers the reader alternative wines to try based on those they already drink More than 200 of Johnson s favourites for 2012 are also included Hugh Johnson s winning formula of insight critical appraisal of the world of wine plus vintage news has never been bettered
