Sunrise A Song Of Two Humans:

Sunrise Lucy Fischer, 2020-10-01 Sunrise A Song of Two Humans 1927 is one of the most historically pivotal of all films. The first American film of the celebrated German director F W Murnau, Sunrise tells the story of a love triangle between characters named only as The Man, The Wife, and The Woman from the City. Lucy Fischer's compelling study of the film shows how it mediates between German expressionism and American melodrama, the avantgarde and popular film, silent cinema and talkies. A lavish and sumptuous production famous for its vast specially constructed sets and one of the first feature films with a synchronized musical score and sound effects soundtrack, Sunrise was one of early Hollywood's most ambitious undertakings. In her foreword to this new edition, Lucy Fischer considers the film as an abiding classic of world cinema.

Sunrise [franz.] Karl Mayer, 1974 British Film Institute Film Classics Rob White, Edward Buscombe, 2003 A Chronology of the Cinema Volume 1 From the pioneers to 1960 Mirko Riazoli, 2017-09-19. This Chronology of the Cinema of which we propose here the first volume aims to retrace the history of the seventh art in the different countries of the world by chronicling year by year its main events and developments starting from the birthdates of the pioneers and inventors who preceded the Lumi re brothers to reach until the year 2015 with the goal to offer the readers a global perspective on its birth, evolution and diffusion over time. This first volume covers the period going from 1830 to 1960. The information presented for each year is divided into thematic sections. The first one titled Personalities reports the births and the deaths of the most important persons: directors, art directors, producers, actors, costume designers, cinematographers, theoreticians, critics, etc. in the history of the cinema together with the positions they covered in their careers. Across its three volumes, this Chronology offers information on more than 3000 persons. The second section titled Movies lists the most relevant movies made during the year, reporting for each of them the essential details like director, English title and original title, genre, producing country, technology, film and sound, scriptwriter, editor, cinematographer, production designer, art director, producer, composer, costume designer, make up artist, special effect artist, and actors. Across its three volumes, this Chronology offers information on more than 3000 films. The third section titled Events reports the main events in the history of cinema as the first screenings and the first movies made in the different countries, the inventions and technologies that affected and innovated this art, the creation of production companies, movie archives, and other institutions, cinema schools, censorship offices, festivals, and the publication of the most important theoretical essays, cinema magazines, and artistic manifestos. The fourth section titled Film Awards reports for each year the winners of various important awards divided by categories at national and international festivals and events in the different continents to offer a more articulated point of view on the seventh art across the world. Among the awards and festivals here considered are Golden Globe Awards, Venice Film Festival, Cannes Festival, BAFTA, Berlin Film Festival, Moscow Film Festival, Ouagadougou International Film Festival, Tokyo International Film Festival, and the Mar de la Plata Festival. WJEC Eduqas Film Studies for A Level & AS - Student Book - Revised Edition Ellen

The Encyclopedia of Best Films Jay Robert Nash, 2019-10-23 This all inclusive A Z encyclopedia by one of the world's foremost experts on cinema provides comprehensive annotations of the best films produced from 1914 on. The work offers more than 5 000 three to five star entries: three stars good, four stars excellent, five stars masterpiece, and yes, author Jay Robert Nash has viewed every single one of them as well as many more that did not make the cut. In addition to a precis, each film's entry also includes a listing of the cast as well as the key principles involved in production from the director to the hair stylist. Especially unique to this book is a rating system that helps parents determine whether or not a film is appropriate for their children. Unlike the industry rating system which can be influenced by studio lobbying, Nash objectively evaluates each film and confers upon it one of four recommendations for viewing: recommended, acceptable, cautionary, and unacceptable. Backmatter includes a list of top films by genre, i.e. animated, drama, sports, mystery, adventure, etc., as well as an annotated name index listing all persons mentioned along with their dates of birth and death. Rounding out this essential volume for the film buff are over 500 still photos from the author's private collection. European Silent Films on Video William Parrill, 2006 This book is a critical encyclopedia of silent European films currently available on DVD, laser disc, and VHS. It provides summaries of the films, evaluates the quality of the prints, indicates the changing reputations of both films and filmmakers, evaluates individual films, and demonstrates how the techniques developed during the silent period continue to influence films today. Provided by publisher International Dictionary of Films and Filmmakers: Actors and actresses James Vinson, 1990 Provides thorough coverage of films and filmmakers including legendary films, actors and actresses, directors, writers, and other production artists.
