an unmated female on the planet Norlan has spent most of her life knowing that she'll likely never be chosen as a mate because she's sterile. She spends her days watching her people take soul mates from other planets and find happiness but she knows she won't ever be so lucky. Dero lives on the forbidden side of the Issizlik Mountains. He's never ventured to the other side of the mountain until now when he and his people mount a mission to destroy the soul walk machines used to abduct females from other planets and the vaccinations that have caused the females to become sterile. What he doesn't expect is to scent his own soul mate in the medical center or for her to pass out in fear when they come face to face. Dero has three days to convince Tarihn that they're soul mates or he'll have to return her to her home and erase her memory. The thought of living without her for even a moment is too much for him to bear and he'll do everything in his power to ensure that she knows he wants to spend the rest of his life making her happy. Will she give him a chance to prove that they're meant to be together or will she want to go back to her own people?

He thought Rob was out of his life for good but now he has to confront his unresolved feelings and not let his work suffer. When Andy discovers the body of fellow graduate student Charlie Harper in the university library his ex Rob looks like the chief suspect in the murder. And just what was the relationship between Rob and Charlie? Andy and his best friend Maggie McLendon agree that Rob isn't a murderer and they decide the best way to exonerate him is to figure out who really killed Charlie. Who else might have had a motive for murder? When a second murder occurs Andy, Maggie and Rob must work quickly to find the killer before Rob ends up charged with two murders he didn't commit or even worse dead. The earnest wry Andy makes an appealing narrator. Publishers Weekly a compelling mystery in the Carolyn Hart tradition. Margaret Maron
