The Hardest Goodbye Tonya Ranelle Mitchell,Trey Mitchell,Ty Mitchell,2004-09-01 Written as a way to speak to her autistic sons this is much more than just a book of poems It is a secret kept between friends It is a story of love and of trusting in faith The most intimate feelings are expressed in these honest and familiarly painful written words This ironically is the least intimate form of expression It is because of this balance or paradox her words live on far beyond When you finish the book you will feel you have made a friend This friend is close and far away With this there is a promise of both a connection and an impasse This is the hardest goodbye Eliciting the truth Shreejita Francis, Adversity has the effect of eliciting talents Which in prosperous circumstances Would have lain dormant Shreejita Francis Eliciting The Truth is a storybook dealing with different challenges of an individual in various stages of life in sharing their true feeling with people and the truth which needs to be revealed no matter how hard it is Her book consists of 31 stories and those stories explain the hidden truth of being optimistic that surrounds us and visualize the best of life with the hope of inspiring many people like her so that they can as well come out of their shells expressing feelings they buried deep down through the help of things they love to do This is a book to be read and reread whose lines you will underline and think about again a book you will give your family friends and strangers Shreejita hopes for this book to become the most gifted book ever The Management

The Hardest Goodbye Jacqueline Vasquez, 2018-08-11 Often when people think of being in love they think of someone doing something to make them happy but someone making you happy is simply BEING LOVED Love is wanting someone else to be happy even if that happiness doesn't come from you love is putting your ego and feelings aside because you want what's best for them No Love isn't for you if you think of love and you think of yourself and think of how it can benefit you Love is not what you can get but what you are willing to give Loving someone even when they are unlovable Love is not to take up space I am at a place in life where it physically drains me to put effort into individuals that have expiration dates into people that I wouldn't talk to unless I reached out first At some point we lose compassion and a sense of humanity when we think of love as our own personal gain I like to think that my purpose in life is not just for myself but something much greater something that tells me to love without limits and without expecting anything in return
