The Haj:

The Haj Leon Uris, 1984 Travels in Arabia Deserta Charles Montagu Doughty, 1888 Muslim Merit-making in Thailand's Far-South Christopher M. Joll, 2011-11-02 This volume provides an ethnographic description of Muslim merit making rhetoric rituals and rationales in Thailand's Malay far south This study is situated in Cabetigo one of Pattani's oldest and most important Malay communities that has been subjected to a range of Thai and Islamic influences over the last hundred years The volume describes religious rhetoric related to merit making being conducted in both Thai and Malay that the spiritual currency of merit is generated through the performance of locally occurring Malay adat and globally normative amal ibadat Concerning the rationale for merit making merit makers are motivated by both a desire to ensure their own comfort in the grave and personal vindication at judgment as well as to transfer merit for those already in the grave who are known to the merit maker While the rhetoric elements of Muslim merit making reveal Thai influence its ritual elements confirm the local impact of reformist activism Two Arabs, a Berber, and a Jew Lawrence Rosen, 2016 Drawn from Memory is an important contribution to Moroccan studies to the field of anthropology and to academic approaches to biography Rosen weaves the threads of his narrative together into a tapestry focused on the lives of four men a raconteur a teacher an entrepreneur and a cloth dealer a Jew Ordinary people have intellectual lives Rosen tells us They may never have written a book they may never even have read one But their lives are rich in ideas constantly fashioned and revised elaborated and rearranged Rosen first encountered the four men he profiles in his book in the course of his academic research and he then visited and revisited these men and the towns in which they live over several decades He engaged them in a kind of continuous conversation He spoke to members of their family their neighbors and the town people Out of this wealth of material he has constructed a narrative that takes the reader not only into four intensely observed individual lives but also as it were the history of Morocco's evolution across the span of many decades he takes the reader not only into the outwardly lived lives of his subjects but their innermost thoughts their own perceptions of themselves and the evolving Moroccan world around them At the same time he manages to evoke the physical landscape the towns in which these men live marvelously well so that the towns and their inhabitants come alive for the reader Beautifully illustrated with archival and ethnographic photos Drawn from Memory teaches us that that for Moroccans and by extension Muslims in general nothing in everyday social life is hard and fast and the meaning and outcome of all interactions is the product of negotiation and relatedness
