The Heresy Of Self Love:

The Heresy of Self-love Paul Zweig, 1968      2 Timothy MacArthur New Testament Commentary John MacArthur, 1995-08-01 Second Timothy is essentially Paul's last will and testament. Though alone and in prison, Paul saw his ministry as a success because he had remained faithful to Christ. He urged Timothy to take the same courageous stand for the truth. In so doing, his letter calls all believers to boldness and perseverance in spiritual service. Join John MacArthur as he explains each verse in a way that is both doctrinally precise and intensely practical.      The Melancholy of Stephen Allard Garnet Smith, 1894      1 & 2 Timothy MacArthur New Testament Commentary Set John MacArthur, 1995-08-01 This package includes the complete two-volume set of 1 Timothy and 2 Timothy from the MacArthur New Testament Commentary series. The MacArthur New Testament Commentary series continues to be one of today's top-selling commentary series. These commentaries from respected Bible scholar and preacher John MacArthur give a verse-by-verse analysis in context and provide points of application for passages illuminating the biblical text in practical and relevant ways.      The Nineteenth Century and After, 1894      The Nineteenth Century, 1894      Shakespeare's Christianity E. Beatrice Batson, 2006 This volume explores the influences of Catholicism and Protestantism in a trio of Shakespeare's tragedies: Julius Caesar, Macbeth, and Hamlet. Bypassing the discussion of Shakespeare's personal religious beliefs, Batson instead focuses on distinct footprints left by Catholic and Protestant traditions that underlie and inform Shakespeare's artistic genius.      The heresy of self-love: a study of subvertaure individualism Paul Zweig,      Nineteenth Century, 1894      Later gleanings, theological and ecclesiastical William Ewart Gladstone, 1898      Nineteenth Century and After, 1894      Later Gleanings William Ewart Gladstone, 1898      The Journal of Speculative Philosophy, 1884      Christian Literature and Review of the Churches, 1894      THE JOURNAL OF SPECULATIVE PHILOSOPHY WILLIAM T HARRIS, 1884      The Troubles of Our Catholic Forefathers Related by Themselves John Morris, 1877      Elegiac Fictions Edward Engelberg, 1989 In dealing with the motif of the un-lived life, Edward Engelberg explores an important and hitherto neglected chapter in the history of modern thought. He analyzes literary works chiefly from the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries: novels, short stories, and some plays within the context of a number of psychological and philosophical concepts to sustain his argument. Engelberg's premise is that in this period we begin to see what he calls the elegizing of the self: that is, mourning over one's shortcomings, failures, disappointments in short, the un-lived life; the perception that the hero or heroine has missed the opportunities of living that it is now too late to achieve what has become known today as self-actualization. Engelberg also analyzes how the motif was acted out and what symptoms accompanied its expression. To this end, he makes use of Freud's essays Mourning and Melancholia and On Narcissism, as well as the idea of narcissistic rage advanced by Heinz Kohut. In addition, he draws upon Schopenhauer's pessimism, Nietzsche's conception of history, and Max Scheler's theory of resentment. This study then identifies a special state of mind: the elegiac cries of despair that emanate from a wide variety of fictional personae. There are no simple answers as to why these feelings were expressed so frequently and passionately from the Romantics onward but one cause is surely the double edged effect of the emergence of the autonomous self With autonomy came anxiety fear and a feeling of impotence And these states in turn generated a variety of reactions self images of superfluosness expressions of narcissistic rage and states of mourning and melancholia The book will interest a variety of constituencies beyond the literary establishment psychologists intellectual historians philosophers in short all who are interested in cultural phenomena and their literary expression     The Poetical Gender of the Substantives in the Works of Ben Jonson Carl August Ljunggren,1892

The Church History of Scotland: 1638-1882 John Cunningham,1882     The Literature of Unlikeness Charles Dahlberg,1988
