South African Education Policy Review, 1993-2000 Linda Chisholm, Shireen Motala, Salim Vally, 2003 The South African Education Policy Review is an invaluable historical archive It is a source book on policies conflicts developments and perspectives on education policy in the period 1993 to 2000 Drawing from a selection of articles from the successful Quarterly Reviews of Education and Training produced by the Education Policy Unit of the University of Witwatersrand this book provides readers with detailed accounts of educational changes in South Africa over the past decade It reflects upon significant events trends and debates and provides insightful analysis of this extremely momentous period of South Africa's history

This Week in South Africa, 1996 A weekly news summary of the major daily newspapers in the Pretoria Johannesburg metropolitan area

In Full Flight Walter Carlsnaes, Philip Nel, Institute for Global Dialogue, 2006 Foreign policy is widely regarded as one of the post apartheid government's major areas of achievement yet remains one of the most challenging In this volume leading scholars provide critical assessments of the conduct of South African foreign policy since 1994 against the background of six principles articulated by Nelson Mandela in a celebrated article published in the journal Foreign Affairs in 1993 While South African foreign policy has become wide ranging and complex these reflective contributions demonstrate a remarkable adherence to these principles Aimed at stimulating thinking among policy makers analysts and students this volume will rank as one of the most authoritative analyses and one of the most complete intellectual records of South Africa s foreign policy during the crucial first decade following its transition to democracy Subnational Foreign Relations in Africa Ohiocheoya Omiunu,Fritz Ikome Nganje,Ifeanyichukwu Azuka Aniyie,2026-02-18 This book offers a pioneering comparative analysis of the international relations of subnational governments SNGs in two of Africa s most influential geopolitical actors South Africa and Nigeria Using an interdisciplinary approach that draws from political science international relations and legal studies the book examines the motivations instruments institutional mechanisms and challenges shaping the external engagements of SNGs in these leading African economies Through case studies the book provides critical insights into how constitutional institutional and historical contexts influence subnational international relations from an African perspective Drawing on these findings the book argues that paradiplomacy in Africa is best understood through the lens of developmental paradiplomacy where socio economic imperatives rather than political autonomy drive subnational international engagement It demonstrates how the need for practical cooperation and the pursuit of local and regional economic development has been central to sustaining the international involvement of African SNGs a strategy born out of necessity rather than an expression of political self determination This book will be an essential resource for scholars policymakers and practitioners seeking to understand the role of subnational actors in global governance and African development offering fresh perspectives on the evolving landscape of international relations in the Global South South African Labour-business Monitor ,1995 Kathorus P.
