Someone New:

Becoming Someone New Enoch Lambert, John Schwenkler, 2020-07-17 Suppose you're offered an opportunity to experience something that is unlike anything you have ever encountered but that's all you know aside from the fact that the experience is physically safe and morally acceptable. How do you decide whether to take up the offer? Several philosophers have recently argued that we are in similar situations for more of our decisions than we usually recognize. Are they right? What resources can we draw on to create such situations? Are they enough to satisfy our aims of making the best decisions we can, especially in high stakes situations? This volume brings together philosophers and psychologists to investigate the phenomenon of transformative change and a host of fascinating questions it prompts. Taking their departure from seminal work on transformative choice and experience by L. A. Paul and Edna Ullmann-Margalit, the authors pursue fundamental questions concerning the nature of rationality, the limits of the imagination, and the metaphysics of the self. They also strike out into new areas including value theory, aesthetics, moral and political philosophy. Several chapters present the results of experimental investigation into the psychology of transformation, self-concept, and moral learning. Everyday People in Early Modern Kyoto Mary Louise Nagata, 2025-07-21 This social history explores the lives of urban commoners in early modern Kyoto during the dramatic political shift from famine to revolution in the final decades of the Tokugawa regime through an extensive survey of the detailed record. Changes from 1843 in response to these crises. The study focuses on three aspects of urban life: beginning with individual and household relations with the neighborhood communities that comprised the institutional framework of urban administration and provided financial and legal resources for residents. It then moves to the lives of ordinary people taking a life course approach to analyze life cycle work, marriage, divorce, blended families, fertility, adoption, migration, mobility, and mortality. The final theme discusses households, people lived in, headship succession, and devolution of property, family business as a network of household shops and workshops, and the roles women played while testing the patriarchy theories commonly used in this field and finding new explanations. Written for all levels of expertise and including many stories of everyday people, this book will appeal to undergraduate students and general readers interested in historical Kyoto. Hirano and Kagiura (novel) Shou Harusono, Kotoko Hachijo, 2023-02-21 Kagiura is equal parts eager and anxious to start a new chapter of his life as a high schooler. He's aiming to be a star player on the basketball team, and he's even moved into the school dorms. Upon arrival, he discovers that his roommate is a blond, pierced delinquent looking upperclassman. First impressions aside, Hirano isn't actually as rough as he seems. He wakes Kagiura up in the morning, helps him with his studies, and is a great listener to boot. This is a peek into their daily lives and the hints of a blossoming love. His Destiny Bride (Welcome to Destiny, Book 7) (Mills & Boon Cherish) Christyne Butler, 2016-06-01 Something About the Boss That handsome masked stranger Katie Ledbetter got very, very close to after the costume party. Yeah, that would be her boss, Nolan Murphy. Super embarrassing but par for the course in her ill-fated quest for love. That's when she comes to a decision to give up the romance rat race and have a child on her own

From the New York Times bestselling author and CEO founder of Spartan essential lessons for any parent at any stage in the game. Rich Roll ultra endurance athlete and author of Finding Ultra. Joe De Sena has spent his life running toward challenge and discomfort. Why? Because how we react to challenging situations defines us and our families. The only tools we have as humans to survive the many peaks and valleys of a full life are preparedness, health, leadership, and most importantly, resilience. Why do so many parents struggle to finish things we start? Delay gratification and protect our health and why do our kids continue to struggle in every facet of life? Because we haven't showed them a path to resilience and we haven't fought for it ourselves. In Ten Rules for Resilience Joe De Sena outlines his ten principles for leading your family to True Resilience, a term he uses for a body and mind that have been carved out of hard work, challenge, and failure. It takes True Resilience to approach overwhelming situations with calm and confidence, to not get rattled, anxious, or angry, and even to embrace failure, setbacks, and redirections. This book is an incredible road map. For anyone who is looking for some guidance on how to parent with these principles at the forefront, you'll find it here. Gabby Reece Olympic volleyball player.
