Reasonable Children Michael S. Pritchard, 1996 The public outcry for a return to moral education in our schools has raised more dust than it's dispelled. Building upon his provocative ideas in On Becoming Responsible Michael Pritchard clears the air with a sensible plan for promoting our children's moral education through the teaching of reasonableness. Pritchard contends that children have a definite but frequently untapped capacity for reasonableness and that schools in a democratic society must make the nurturing of that capacity one of their primary aims as fundamental to learning as the development of reading, writing, and math skills. Reasonableness itself he shows can be best cultivated through the practice of philosophical inquiry within a classroom community. In such an environment children learn to work together to listen to one another to build on one another's ideas to probe assumptions and different perspectives and ultimately to think for themselves. Advocating approaches to moral education that avoid mindless indoctrination and timid relativism Pritchard neither preaches nor hides behind abstractions. He makes liberal use of actual classroom dialogues to illustrate children's remarkable capacity to engage in reasonable conversation about moral concepts involving fairness, cheating, loyalty, truth-telling, lying, making and keeping promises, obedience, character, and responsibility. He also links such discussions to fundamental concerns over law and moral authority, the roles of teachers and parents, and the relationship between church and state. Pritchard draws broadly and deeply from the fields of philosophy and psychology as well as from his own extensive personal experience working with children and teachers. The result is a rich and insightful work that provides real hope for the future of our children and their moral education.

Belgravia, 1897 The Columbia Granger's Index to Poetry in Anthologies Tessa Kale, 2007 For over a hundred years The Columbia Granger's Index to Poetry in Anthologies has been the preeminent index for answers to questions about the world of poetry identifying the author of a poem or the anthologies in which it can be found when only a title, first line, or last line is known. This latest edition, a must have for libraries, brings its index up to date as of May 31, 2006. This latest version features 85,000 classic and contemporary poems by 12,000 poets. Also included are works in translation and, for the first time, poetry in Spanish, Vietnamese, and French. The subject organization of the poems is especially useful. Hundreds of new subjects have been added, indexing poems on highly relevant topics such as Osama bin Laden, the war in Iraq, Dick Cheney, the Internet, and Rosa Parks, as well as timeless subjects like the Bill of Rights, unspoken love, faith, and inspiration. Our impressive team of consultants includes J. D. McClatchy, Harvey Shapiro, and former poet laureate Mark Strand. From The Norton Anthology of Poetry 2005 edition to Poetry after 9/11 and Garrison Keillor's Good Poems, this new edition puts readers in touch with the best of the latest anthologies and the lasting favorites.

What Makes You Tick? Michael J.

Berland,Douglas E. Schoen,2024-05-21 In the most challenging economy of our lifetime where should you turn for guidance To the stories of those who have made it the leaders who battled adversity forged their own paths and succeeded because they knew what made them tick As people everywhere confront the global economic crisis success may seem elusive at best impossible at worst Yet history proves that a new generation of success stories will likely emerge from this era of financial chaos And this new book prepares you to be one of those success stories by analyzing the inner qualities that have propelled the forward thinking leaders of our time drive determination and self awareness As strategists for the internationally renowned consumer and political research firm Penn Schoen a world famous chef restaurateur the CEO of NBC Universal a supermodel turned entrepreneur the head of Est e Lauder the commissioner of the National Hockey League the president of Hearst Magazines and the creator of CBS s 60 Minutes Berland and Schoen have discovered that true success is about more than winning True success has an emotional quotient it s about determining your innate strengths deciding what you truly want and striving tirelessly to achieve it Berland and Schoen describe the five archetypes of success visionaries natural born leaders do gooders independence seekers and independents who follow their dreams In this unprecedented collection of stories from some of the most successful people in fashion sports entertainment and business Schoen and Berland demonstrate that success isn t about changing who you are rather it s about figuring out what makes you tick and leveraging that knowledge to your advantage This book shows through compelling first person storytelling that the most successful people understand their own natural abilities and how to use their best qualities to create a fulfilling life and then tells you how to do the same
